2011 SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2011 season brings a new look as head coach Luke Fickell takes over the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The 2011 season presents the Buckeyes with more than their share of challenges. For the first time since 2001, Ohio State will have a new man in charge on the sidelines in head coach Luke Fickell, who took over for Jim Tressel, who went 94-21 as head coach. Fickell becomes the 23rd head coach in the 121-year history of Buckeye football.

"I can't tell you how humbled I am to stand here as the coach of The Ohio State University," Fickell said at his first news conference in June. "The 2011 Buckeyes will not be compared or contrasted to previous years. It will be about respect, toughness and being men of action. We have a goal to lead the nation in three categories: effort, turnovers and toughness."

To help reach those goals, not only will Fickell and his staff need to replace four offensive and seven defensive starters, but also find out who will fill temporary voids left by starters WR DeVier Posey, RB Daniel "Boom" Herron and LT Mike Adams on offense and DE Solomon Thomas on defense — all of whom will miss the first five games of the 2011 season. However, the biggest concern for Fickell will be to find a permanent replacement for QB Terrelle Pryor, who went 31-4 as a starter the past three years.

Combined with graduation, Ohio State loses (for the first five games anyhow) its top six point producers on offense/special teams and five of its top six tacklers. So if the Buckeyes plan on continuing their run atop the Big Ten Conference, some of the younger players will need to emerge and learn quickly.

The quarterback position, no doubt, will be the most intriguing as Fickell and his staff will be watching and waiting for a player to emerge during fall camp. On paper, redshirt senior Joe Bauserman seems to have a leg up on the competition, backing up Pryor for the past two seasons with 320 passing yards and two TDs. Also in the mix will be Ken Gupton, a redshirt sophomore, who played in five games last season. But there also has been plenty of buzz surrounding incoming freshman Braxton Miller, who could move up the depth chart quickly if he proves capable during preseason workouts. And don't count out redshirt freshman Taylor Graham, who also should get plenty of snaps this fall to showcase his skills.

"I think it's completely wide open," Fickell said. "I think Joe and I understand that. He understands that. We're going to have the opportunity when the fall comes to make sure everyone knows what's expected and then we're going to evaluate on a daily basis."

Competition will be fierce at running back as well. Even with the absence of Herron, the Buckeyes remain stacked with the likes of junior Jordan Hall (37 att., 169 yds, 2 TDs), sophomores Jaamal Berry (32, 267, 1 TD) and Carlos Hyde (24, 145) and redshirt freshman Rod Smith. The versatile Zach Boren, who caught 10 passes out of the backfield in 2010, is back once again to clear holes at fullback along with junior Adam Homan.

Clearing the way up front will be an experienced offensive line, anchored by All-America center and Rimington and Outland candidate

Michael Brewster, who has been called by some "the best center in America." Looking to fill the void left by Adams, Justin Boren and Bryant Browning will be sophomore Andrew Norwell and redshirt sophomores Corey Linsley, Jack Mewhort and Marcus Hall. Back to anchor the right side of the offensive line will be steady senior J.B. Shugarts while on the outside, the Buckeyes return two solid starters at tight end in redshirt junior Jake Stoneburner and junior Reid Fragel.

With Posey's absence and Dane Sanzenbacher's departure, a major void has been left at wide receiver. Thankfully, the Buckeyes have plenty of talent waiting in the wings to prove their worth. The one with the most experience, albeit eight games, is sophomore Corey "Philly" Brown, who showed great flashes in limited action last year. Also look for sophomores Chris Fields and James Louis to emerge along with 6-foot, 5-inch T.Y. Williams — a big, talented target from East Cleveland who redshirted 2010.

Defensively, defensive coordinator Jim Heacock must replace seven starters from a Silver Bullet group that ranked second in the nation in total defense during the regular season. Back are junior strong safety Orhian Johnson, senior linebacker Andrew Sweat, junior tackle John Simon and senior defensive end Nathan Williams. Also returning are two once-upon-a-time starters who fell victim to season-ending injuries last season in senior defensive back Tyler Moeller and safety C.J. Barnett.

Gone up front are all-Big Ten defensive end Cameron Heyward and tackle Dexter Larimore. The front-runners to fill those voids appear to be sophomore Johnathan Hankins, who played big minutes up front as a true freshman in critical situations, redshirt junior Garrett Goebel, redshirt sophomore Adam Bellamy along with Darryl Baldwin and J.T. Moore. Competition will be on to replace two starting linebackers and two defensive backs as well. Travis Howard received valuable minutes last season at corner, recording a pick-six in the Penn State win, while redshirt sophomores Corey Brown, Dominic Clarke and Florida State transfer Dionte Allen will also vie for the other starting nod at cornerback. Seniors Nate Oliver and Donnie Ege and redshirt sophomore Jamie Wood also have the talent and experience to emerge in the secondary while Christian Bryant will look to regain his starting spot at one of the safety spots.

After Sweat, linebacker battles figure to be more than interesting among juniors Etienne Sabino and Storm Klein and senior Tony Jackson with numerous freshmen — Chad Hagan, Ryan Shazier and Curtis Grant to name a few — vying for playing time.

Returning at punter is Ben Buchanan, who averaged 41.0 yards per kick last season, while sophomore kicker Drew Basil is expected to take over the full-time duties for kickoffs and field goals.

HEAD COACH LUKE FICKELL

THE FICKELL FILE

Hometown: Columbus, Ohio

High School: DeSales

Alma Mater: Ohio State University, 1997

Years in Coaching: First as head coach, 13th overall

Wife: Amy

Children: Landon, Luca, Aydon, Ashton

HEAD COACH LUKE FICKELL

On May 30, 2011, Luke Fickell was promoted to the position of head coach of the Ohio State football team. The team's former assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach thus becomes the 23rd head coach in 121 years of Buckeye football. Fickell is only the fifth Ohio State head coach in the last 60 years, after Woody Hayes (28 seasons; 1951-78), Earle Bruce (nine seasons; 1979-87), John Cooper (13 seasons; 1988-2000) and Jim Tressel (10 seasons; 2001-10).

"We look forward to refocusing the football program on doing what we do best – representing this extraordinary University and its values on the field, in the classroom, and in life," Director of Athletics Gene Smith said in naming Fickell to the position. "We look forward to supporting Luke Fickell in his role as our football coach. We have full confidence in his ability to lead our football program."

The 2011 season will be Fickell's 10th on the Ohio State football staff. Prior to Fickell's appointment to head coach he was promoted to assistant head coach in March 2011. He also coached the Buckeye linebackers and served as co-defensive coordinator. He was named to the latter position in April 2005. In that role, he was actively involved in game planning and strategy.

Fickell is a Columbus native (DeSales High School, where he was a state wrestling champion) and a 1997 graduate of Ohio State where he was a four-year starter at nose guard while earning his degree in exercise science. Post-graduation, Fickell spent a year on the injured reserve list with the New Orleans Saints before beginning his coaching career.

During his first two years at Ohio State, Fickell was in charge of the special teams and assisted with the defensive front. In his role as special teams coordinator, Fickell had specific responsibility for the punting team. Under his tutelage, that unit has excelled, leading the Big Ten in net punting in three of the past five years.

Fickell played for the Buckeyes from 1992-96, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started a school-record 50 consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

Fickell concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles, including 26 tackles-for-loss and six sacks. During his four years in the starting lineup, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 41-8-1 overall and were 26-5-1 in Big Ten play with a pair of Big Ten co-championships to their credit. With the win over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, the Buckeyes finished the 1996 season with a sparkling 11-1 record and were second in the nation in both major polls in the final rankings.

Luke and his wife, Amy (an Ohio State physical therapy graduate), have four children: Landon, Luca, and twins Aydon and Ashton.

THE VRABEL FILE

Hometown: Akron, Ohio

High School: Walsh Jesuit

College: Ohio State University, 2004

Year in Coaching: First

Children: Tyler and Carter

Mike Vrabel retired from the National Football League after 14 seasons as a player in July 2011 to join coach Luke Fickell's Ohio State coaching staff. He takes over Fickell's former charges as the team's linebackers coach.

Vrabel, who has his degree from Ohio State in exercise science, was a dominant performer for the Buckeyes, earning two Big Ten Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors (1995 and 1996). He was the first to win the award consecutively and he also earned back-to-back All-America honors those same seasons. Vrabel twice set the single season record for sacks and tackles for loss (TFL) and he still holds school records for career sacks (36) and single season and career TFLs (26 in 1995 and 66).

The Akron, Ohio, native embarked on what would become a distinguished NFL career with three teams following his Ohio State playing days. It was a career that saw him a part of the New England Patriots' dynamic run of three Super Bowls in four years (2001, 2003, 2004). In 2007, as a member of the Patriots, he was named to the Pro Bowl and a month later was named All-Pro.

On top of these accomplishments, Vrabel's professional career included 206 games played with Pittsburgh, New England and Kansas City, 140 starts and enough impressive statistics – 57 sacks, 11 interceptions, 17 forced fumbles and 11 touchdowns receiving (as a tight end), including two in Super Bowls – that one has to conclude he is one of the great performers in a team sport that Ohio State has ever produced.

Drafted in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, Vrabel spent four years with the Steelers and played in 51 games. He was a starter for eight seasons with the Patriots, playing in 125 games and starting 110 games. He spent the last two years with Kansas City playing in and starting 30 games.

Vrabel, who is a graduate of Walsh Jesuit High School, and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two sons: 10-year-old Tyler and 9-year-old Carter.

“Mike Vrabel is as well-suited for coaching as any player I have ever coached. He has a tremendous feel for people, players, coaches and what his team needs regardless of the situation. He is outstanding in his knowledge of the game, which contributed to his excellence as a player. I have no doubt Mike will develop tough, intelligent, fundamentally sound winners.”

2010 SEASON REVIEW

Predicted in the preseason as a strong contender for a championship run, the 2010 Buckeyes opened the campaign with a No. 2 national ranking and the Big Ten favorite moniker. Coming off an exciting Rose Bowl victory over Oregon and returning 15 starters (nine on offense, six on defense), Ohio State began the season with a rare Thursday night game at Ohio Stadium, hosting Marshall.

Quarterback Terrelle Pryor threw for 247 yards and three touchdowns while Brandon Saine led a balanced rushing attack with 103 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the convincing 45-7 OSU victory. Dane Sanzenbacher and DeVier Posey combined to haul in seven catches for 154 yards and three touchdowns, while the Buckeyes defense held Marshall to 199 yards of total offense. Ohio State forced three Marshall turnovers; the only points for the Thundering Herd came on a blocked field goal in the first quarter.

The next week featured a rematch of the 2002 national championship game, with the Buckeyes knocking off No. 12 Miami 36-24 at Ohio Stadium. Pryor threw for 233 yards and rushed for 113 more while scoring a pair of touchdowns (one passing, one rushing) and kicker Devin Barclay tied an Ohio State record with five made field goals in the win. Chimdi Chekwa picked off a pair of Hurricane passes and Cameron Heyward had an 80-yard interception return on Miami's first drive of the second half that led to a Pryor touchdown run, giving the Buckeyes a commanding 33-17 lead they did not relinquish.

Pryor completed 22-29 passes for 235 yards as Ohio State defeated Ohio 43-7 at Ohio Stadium; the junior connected on a school-record 16-consecutive passes at one point in the first half. The Buckeye defense limited the Bobcats to 158 yards of total offense and just seven first downs, forcing five Ohio turnovers including an interception by Tyler Moeller, the first of his career, on the second play of the game.

In a fourth consecutive home game, facing Eastern Michigan, Sanzenbacher tied an OSU record with four receiving touchdowns as the Buckeyes scored the most points since 1950 in a 73-20 win. The senior co-captain caught nine passes for 108 yards and Pryor completed 20-26 passes for 224 yards and the four TDs to Sanzenbacher. Pryor also ran for 104 yards and caught a touchdown pass from high school teammate Jordan Hall. Jaamal Berry, Dan Herron and Kenny Guiton each had a touchdown on the ground and Hall added a receiving touchdown.

Beginning Big Ten play on the road, Ohio State improved to 5-0 with a 24-13 win at blustery Illinois. The Buckeyes trailed twice in the first half but responded with touchdown passes from Pryor to Saine and Sanzenbacher to recapture the lead while holding the Illini to 251 yards of total offense. After an Illinois 30-yard field goal cut the Ohio State lead to 17-13 with 4:36 remaining in the game, the Buckeyes answered with a six-play, 53-yard drive capped by a six-yard Herron touchdown run to seal the victory.

In the conference home opener, Pryor threw for a career-high 334 yards as Ohio State rolled Indiana 38-10. Devon Torrence and Brian Rolle picked off Indiana passes as the Buckeye defense held the Hoosiers, who came into the game with the nation's fourth-best passing attack at almost 350 yards per game, to just 41 yards through the air. Coach Jim Tressel became the quickest coach to reach 100 Ohio State victories with the win.

Moving into the No. 1 spot in the national polls, the Buckeyes' next assignment was a night game at No. 16 Wisconsin. That's where OSU dropped its first game of the season, a 31-18 decision. After the Badgers took a 21-3 advantage into the half, Ohio State responded with a pair of Herron touchdown runs to cut the lead to 21-18 with 11:38 remaining in the game but Wisconsin had the answer with a TD run and a late field goal to hand the Buckeyes their first loss. Herron carried the ball 19 times for 91 yards and Sanzenbacher caught six passes for 94 yards.

No. 11 Ohio State bounced back from the loss to shut out Purdue 49-0 at Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes put up 415 offensive yards while limiting the Boilermakers to 44 yards en route to building a 42-0 halftime lead. Pryor completed 16-22 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns, while Herron had two touchdown rushes. Sanzenbacher, Posey, Corey Brown and Spencer Smith each had touchdown catches for the Buckeyes.

On Ohio State's trip to Minnesota's new stadium, Pryor threw for 222 yards and two scores and Herron rushed for 114 yards and a touchdown in just a half of play as the Buckeyes prevailed 52-10. Posey had six catches for 115 yards and a touchdown and John Simon had a 30-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown. The Buckeyes gained 507 yards of total offense and forced three Gopher turnovers while limiting Minnesota to just 232 yards.

After an open date, the tough November schedule began at home, as No. 9 Ohio State came back from an 11-point halftime deficit to score 35 unanswered points in the second half en route to a 38-14 win over Penn State. Herron rushed for a career-high 190 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries; Torrence and Travis Howard each had second-half interception returns for touchdowns. Pryor threw for 139 yards with touchdown passes to Jake Stoneburner and Sanzenbacher.

The next week, No. 9 Ohio State rallied to edge No. 20 Iowa 20-17 in a titanic tussle at Kinnick Stadium. Facing a 17-13 deficit and a fourth-and-10 with just over four minutes remaining, Pryor scrambled for 14 yards and a first down to keep the drive alive. The QB then found Sanzenbacher for 24 yards to set up Herron's game-winning touchdown run with 1:47 left. Pryor threw for 195 yards and a touchdown and ran for another 78, while Herron gained 69 yards on the ground. A Heyward 11-yard sack of Iowa QB Ricky Stanzi on third down set up the game-winning drive.

With a share of a sixth consecutive Big Ten title on the line, No. 8 Ohio State clinched its portion of the championship recording a seventh-consecutive win over Michigan, 37-7. Pryor threw for 220 yards and two touchdowns and Sanzenbacher and Posey combined for eight receptions for 153 and two touchdowns. Herron ran for a game-high 175 yards and a touchdown, while Jordan Hall had an 85-yard kickoff return to give the Buckeyes a 17-7 lead midway through the second quarter. The Buckeyes forced three Michigan turnovers, including fumble recoveries by Ross Homan and Orhian Johnson and a Howard interception.

Earning a Sugar Bowl berth against Arkansas (OSU's sixth consecutive BCS game), No. 6 Ohio State took a 28-10 lead into halftime and held off a furious comeback to top No. 8 Arkansas 31-26. Sugar Bowl MVP Pryor recorded 336 yards of total offense and threw for two touchdowns. Herron rushed for 87 yards and a score and Posey and Sanzenbacher each had a touchdown reception. After Ohio State had a punt blocked deep in its own territory with a five-point lead and just over a minute remaining in the game, Solomon Thomas dropped back into coverage and picked off a Ryan Mallett pass to seal the victory; Dexter Larimore, Heyward and Simon each recorded sacks for the Buckeye defense.

Sanzenbacher was voted team MVP and most inspirational player for the 12-1 Buckeyes, who finished ranked fifth in the final polls. Eleven Ohio State players - Mike Adams, Barclay, Justin Boren, Mike Brewster, Chekwa, Herron, Heyward, Hines, Ross Homan, Rolle, Sanzenbacher - earned all-Big Ten recognition and Pryor was a finalist for the Big Ten Silver Football. Chekwa and Brewster also received first team All-America accolades. The 2010 seniors finished with 44 career wins, tying the record as the winningest Buckeye class ever.

GAME 1 VS MARSHALL

SEPT. 2, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,040)

BIG TEN NETWORK

COLUMBUS, Ohio - No. 2 Ohio State looked terrific offensively and stubborn defensively in rolling to a season-opening win over the Marshall Thundering Herd, 45-7, in front of 105,040 fans on a delightful Thursday evening at Ohio Stadium.

Playing in the 10th night game in stadium history and kicking off the 121st season of Ohio State football, the Buckeyes were solid from the opening play of the game - a forced fumble on the opening kickoff - until well into the third quarter when the home team was comfortably ahead.

Quarterback Terrelle Pryor led a balanced offensive attack with 247 yards passing and three touchdowns. Brandon Saine looked powerful and elusive with 103 rushing yards, including 45- and 40-yard runs, and two touchdowns. Receivers Dane Sanzenbacher and DeVier Posey combined for seven catches for 154 yards and three touchdowns. Third-year sophomore tight end Jake Stoneburner had a career night, catching three passes for a game-high 41 yards, while fifth-year senior wide receiver Grant Schwartz connected three times for 20 yards.

Defensively the Buckeyes forced three turnovers and limited Marshall, in its first game of the Doc Holliday coaching era, to 199 offensive yards. Marshall's only score came on a blocked field goal attempt in the first quarter that Ahmed Shakoor returned for a touchdown.

"We came off a hard training camp and it was good that we got a number of guys in," head coach Jim Tressel said. "I thought our kids played hard. It was good to see guys back in there like Tyler Moeller and becoming better football players. We have a tremendous challenge next weekend, and if we can learn after what we did today and have a good week of practice, next week should be fun."

In the second half, the Buckeyes continued their first-half momentum, going 80 yards in nine plays in under five minutes to post a 42-7 lead to begin the third quarter. The drive finished with Posey's second touchdown catch of the night off an 11-yard pass from Pryor. Junior running back Dan Herron helped set up the Buckeyes' six score, running 34 yards on four carries with also a nine-yard catch. He finished with seven carries for 44 yards.

Following the Buckeyes' score, Marshall drove down the field inside Ohio State's 10-yard line. But the Scarlet and Gray defense held its ground as senior cornerback Chimdi Chekwa forced a fumble on sophomore running back Martin Ward with senior captain linebacker Ross Homan on the recovery.

In the first half, Marshall fumbled the opening kickoff and three plays later Pryor hit Posey with a six-yard touchdown pass for the first score of the season. After a Marshall three-and-out, the Buckeyes marched 49 yards in three plays with Saine scoring from the 6. Saine set up his score by dashing 40 yards earlier in the drive.

Senior wide receiver Dane Sanzenbacher hauled in this 65-yard touchdown from Terrelle Pryor in the first quarter. Sanzenbacher finished with three catches for 113 yards and a score.

Ohio State's defense did not allow a point in the first half. Johnny Jones' block of a 53-yard field goal attempt set up Marshall's first score of the 2010 campaign. The ball deflected to his left and landed in the hands of Shakoor, who returned it about 60 yards untouched for what is statistically termed a "team" touchdown to cut the score to 14-7.

Two plays from scrimmage later, the Ohio State lead had grown to 21-7. Pryor connected with Sanzenbacher on a 65-yard touchdown pass play to extend the lead.

Then with less than four minutes to go in the half, Saine scored again, this time from 45 yards out, to increase the lead to 28-7.

Linebacker Brian Rolle returned a Brian Anderson interception 30 yards for a touchdown for the fifth touchdown of the half and the fourth by a Buckeye captain. Saine and Sanzenbacher are also team captains. Ohio State has tied a team record with six captains this season.

Fifth-year senior placekicker Devin Barclay made his first field goal of the season from 34 yards out with 7:28 remaining in the fourth quarter. Running back Jaamal Berry got his first collegiate action during the fourth quarter, carrying the ball seven times for 80 yards, the second leading rusher on the night. Ohio State ran for a total 280 yards on 41 attempts.

GAME 2 VS MIAMI

SEPT. 11, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,454) ESPN/3D

COLUMBUS, Ohio - In front of 105,545 fans in Ohio Stadium, No. 2 Ohio State rolled to a 36-24 win over No. 12 Miami.

On an overcast Columbus afternoon with some spotty rain showers, Ohio State rebounded from an early 10-3 deficit and received a terrific defensive effort that was most opportunistic with four interceptions that led to 16 points.

Offensively, the Buckeyes got 233 passing yards and 113 rushing yards from Terrelle Pryor and a school-record tying five field goals from kicker Devin Barclay. Touchdowns were scored by Brandon Saine (18-yard pass from Pryor), Dan "Boom" Herron (4-yard run) and Pryor (13-yard run). DeVier Posey caught four passes for 105 yards.

Barclay's fifth field goal of the game tied him in the record books and extended the lead to 36-17. In the game, Devon Torrence had a career-high tying eight tackles, a pass break-up and a blocked field goal attempt on Miami's second possession of the second half to lead the Buckeye defense. Chimdi Chekwa had two interceptions, two pass break-ups and six tackles. Ross Homan had a team-high 10 tackles and defensive linemen Cameron Heyward and Nathan Williams each recorded interceptions.

Heyward's interception and 80-yard return was huge. It came on Miami's first possession of the second half and the Hurricanes were driving, having reached the Ohio State 9. He dropped back into coverage over the middle, made the pick and followed his blockers all the way to the Miami 15. Pryor scored two plays later to give the Buckeyes a 33-17 lead and the 'Canes were unable to recover.

On the drive following Pryor's score, Miami drove down to the Buckeyes' 22-yard line, but could not convert on third-and-long. The next play, Torrence blocked the 39-yard field goal attempt by senior placekicker Matt Boshers with five minutes remaining to go in the third.

Herron caught a 47-yard pass from Pryor on the second play following the blocked field goal. The long play would then set up a 24-yard field goal from Barclay at 1:29 to put his name in the record books. The Hurricanes would make the score 36-24 after a 9-yard touchdown catch by junior tight end Chase Ford to begin the final quarter, but it was the last time they would see the endzone as the Buckeye defense stood strong in the final minutes.

Ohio State led 26-17 at halftime, converting three first-half interceptions into nine points and that helped offset two Miami return touchdowns.

Ohio State recorded the first big play of the game and it was made by its defense. C.J. Barnett broke up a third down Jacory Harris pass and the deflected ball was grabbed by Williams and returned 33 yards to the UM 10. Barclay's 24-yard field goal gave the home team a 3-0 lead 9 minutes into the first quarter.

Junior quarterback Terrelle Pryor rushed for a career-high 113 yards in the win over the Hurricanes. He also added 233 yards through the air.

Miami responded with its own big play. Lamar Miller returned the ensuing kickoff 88 yards to give the Hurricanes a 7-3 lead. One series later Miami drove into Ohio State territory before Boshers connected on a 51-yard field goal to extend the 'Canes' lead to 10-3.

Pryor hit Posey with a 62-yard pass play on the Buckeyes' next play from scrimmage, giving the team a first down at the UM 18. The very next play Pryor rifled a bullet to Saine in the right corner of the end zone for a touchdown and a 10-all tie after Barclay's extra point.

Ohio State regained the lead on its next possession; a 41-yard field goal by Barclay capped a 10-play, 36-yard drive.

Chekwa, one of nine Buckeyes from the state of Florida, intercepted Harris on the next play from scrimmage and returned the ball a short distance to the Miami 19. Two plays later Herron scored from the 4 to give Ohio State a 20-10 lead off 17-consecutive points.

That run ended with just over 3 minutes to go in the half as lightning struck again against the Ohio State special teams. This time, Travis Benjamin returned a punt 79 yards for a touchdown – the third return score against Ohio State this year – that cut the lead to 20-17.

Barclay's third field goal of the half – a 21-yarder – pushed the lead to 23-17 at the half. Chekwa's second interception and 15-yard return on the 'Canes' next play set Ohio State up with a first down on the UM 27 with 49 seconds left in the half.

GAME 3 VS OHIO

SEPT. 18, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,075)

BIG TEN NETWORK

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Behind a record-setting performance by quarterback Terrelle Pryor, No. 2 Ohio State cruised to a 43-7 win over Mid-American Conference member Ohio in an intra-state matchup at Ohio Stadium.

Ohio, trying for the 500th win in school history, was out of it early as the Buckeyes converted three first-half Ohio turnovers into 17 points and a 34-0 halftime lead. Tyler Moeller recorded his first career interception on the second play of the game, intercepting a Phil Bates pass. Later in the half both Cameron Heyward and Nathan Williams recovered Bobcat fumbles. Both players had interceptions in the Buckeyes' 36-24 win over No. 12 Miami.

Pryor, and the Ohio State defense, were clearly the stories of the day. Pryor completed 22-of-29 passes for 235 yards and two touchdowns, plus he rushed for 35 yards and another touchdown, while improving his record to 22-3 as a starting quarterback. He completed a school-record 16 consecutive passes at one point in the first half, breaking the single-game record of 12 set by Jim Karsatos in 1985 against Wisconsin. Pryor also threw his first interception of the season late in the first half.

The Buckeye defense, which has given up only one touchdown on the season, limited Ohio to 158 yards of offense and seven first downs. Senior linebacker Ross Homan led with seven tackles and an interception.

"I thought our guys did a good job after an emotional and physical game a week ago," head coach Jim Tressel said. "I thought we prepared well and our guys had a lot of respect for Ohio as they should. A lot of them remember a couple years ago when we played against them and it was a dogfight. We seized control of the game early and the biggest challenge you have is keeping execution at a high pitch. We played hard and got a lot of guys in the game, and again, we had 70 or so snaps from each side of the ball to study from and see if we can get better."

Ten different Buckeyes caught passes vs. the Bobcats. DeVier Posey had five catches for 62 yards, while Stoneburner had a career day with five catches for 61 yards and a touchdown and Dane Sanzenbacher also recorded five catches for 58 yards. Brandon Saine led the Ohio State rushing attack with 48 yards on 12 carries.

Pryor connected on a nine-yard touchdown pass to Saine in the first quarter for a 10-0 lead and on a five-yarder to Stoneburner in the second for a 27-0 advantage. He also scored on a 13-yard run and the Buckeyes are 11-1 when he throws for a touchdown and rushes for a score. Dan "Boom" Herron also had two touchdown runs for the Buckeyes.

Devin Barclay converted on 2-of-2 field goals and is 8-of-9 on field goals this season. The Buckeyes also did not record a penalty the entire game.

Devon Torrence also recovered a fumble for the Buckeyes, giving the Ohio State defense eight takeaways in the last two games. Sophomore defensive back Orhian Johnson forced Ohio's third fumble of the game to begin the third quarter. Homan recorded his first interception of the season on the following Bobcat drive for the fifth takeaway recorded by the Buckeye defense.

Heyward put the Buckeyes ahead 36-0 on a safety, tackling running back Vince Davidson for a four-yard loss in the south end zone 6:09 left in the third. Herron's second touchdown run followed the safety under a minute left in the third, making the score 43-0, on a 10-play 55-yard drive.

The Bobcats ended the shutout with less than seven minutes remaining in the fourth when quarterback Boo Jackson connected with Terrence McCrae for an 11-yard touchdown pass.

GAME 4 VS EASTERN MICHIGAN

SEPT. 25, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,017) ABC/ESPN

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Another tremendous offensive effort, sparked by the passing, running and receiving of Terrelle Pryor and the record-tying receiving day of Dane Sanzenbacher, carried No. 2 Ohio State to a convincing win, 73-20, over Eastern Michigan.

The Buckeyes are now 4-0 this season and have won 10 consecutive games over the last two seasons. Eastern Michigan dropped its 16th-consecutive game and fourth this season.

Pryor completed 20-of-26 passes for 224 yards and four touchdowns on the day and he rushed for another 104 yards. The effort was his fourth career game of at least 200 passing yards and 100 rushing yards and his 328 yards of total offense for the game leaves him one short of the school record of six such games, set by Joe Germaine between 1996-98.

Sanzenbacher tied the school record held by Terry Glenn (vs. Pitt in 1995) and Bob Grimes (Washington State in 1952) with four receiving touchdowns. His huge day topped out with nine receptions for 108 yards. Pryor's four touchdown passes to Sanzenbacher marked just the second time in school history a quarterback and receiver combined for four touchdowns passes in a game.

Pryor was responsible for six touchdowns in the game - four passing, one rushing and one receiving - to tie the Ohio State record first set by Tony Curcillo against Iowa in 1951. The last player to score three different ways was Ted Ginn, Jr., against Michigan State in 2004 (rushing, receiving and punt return).

Pryor was not the only Jeannette standout. Jordan Hall threw a touchdown pass (to Pryor) and caught a TD pass from Joe Bauserman to give the Western Pennsylvania school credit for eight touchdowns on the day. The touchdown pass by Bauserman was his first in the Scarlet and Gray.

Ohio State's defense had given up just two touchdowns all season, but Eastern Michigan, relying solely on its passing game, found a way to score three times off 75-, 73- and 80-yard drives. Quarterback Alex Gillett threw for 200 yards, while the rushing game netted just 40 yards.

The stars of this game were shining early. Pryor raced 53 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage and followed it with a 31-yard touchdown strike to Sanzenbacher on the sixth play to propel the Buckeyes to a quick 14-0 lead.

Devin Barclay made it 17-0 on a 42-yard field goal. He hit 10-of-10 extra points on the night, tying Vic Janowicz against Iowa in 1950.

Dan Herron gave the Buckeyes a 24-0 lead at the end of the first quarter on a seven-yard touchdown run. He rushed for 55 yards on 12 carries. In the second quarter, Sanzenbacher caught his second touchdown pass off a nine-yard reception on the sideline at 7:44 from Pryor to make the score, 31-7.

Sanzenbacher's third score gave the Buckeyes' 38

Sophomore running back Jordan Hall rushed and passed for a touchdown in the win over the Eagles.

points heading into halftime following a seven-yard pass from Pryor through the middle of the Eagle defense at 4:18.

In the third quarter, the Buckeyes began the second half with a nine-play, 57-yard drive in under three minutes that was topped off by Sanzenbacher's fourth touchdown from Pryor, which tied the school record.

Following the Buckeye drive, the Eagles scored their third touchdown after Gillett completed a 32-yard pass to Donald Scott to make it 45-20 at 9:11. Senior linebacker Brian Rolle blocked the attempted extra point.

Ohio State hit the 50-point mark when Hall threw a 20-yard touchdown pass to Pryor, his high school teammate, at 2:57 left in the third quarter.

Hall then caught his first career touchdown reception at the beginning of the final period on a 17-yard pass from Bauserman at 13:44, expanding the lead to 39 points and giving the Buckeyes the most points in the Tressel era.

Running back Jaamal Berry scored his first career touchdown as a Buckeye in the fourth quarter, showing his speed on a 67-yard touchdown run down the sideline to close out a five-play, 94-yard scoring run to stretch the score to 66-20 with 8:39 to play.

Quarterback Kenny Guiton, the third Buckeye QB to take a snap in the game, also earned his first collegiate touchdown in the Scarlet and Gray on a 15-yard run up the middle with 3:26 left in the game to finalize the score at 73-20.

GAME 5 AT ILLINOIS

OCT. 2, 2010 - MEMORIAL STADIUM (62,870)

BIG TEN NETWORK

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. – Dan Herron gained 54 of his 95 yards in the fourth quarter and scored the decisive touchdown with 1:49 left to play to lift No. 2 Ohio State to a 24-13 road win over Illinois in the Big Ten opener for both teams. The win, its 11th consecutive dating back to last year, improved Ohio State's record to 5-0 on the season and 1-0 in the Big Ten. Illinois falls to 2-2 and 0-1.

On a windy afternoon in Champaign, neither team presented much of a passing game as Ohio State's Terrelle Pryor managed just 76 yards and Illini signal caller Nathan Scheelhaase threw for 109 yards.

Pryor, who left the game for a few minutes in the third quarter and went into the locker room to get attended for a thigh bruise, did throw two touchdown passes and he also gained 104 yards off 11 carries.

Herron's fourth-quarter heroics were simply huge. With Pryor limited somewhat in his movement after returning, Herron rushed 12 times in the fourth quarter with three of his rushes resulting in first downs. He scored his fifth rushing touchdown of the season from six yards out to seal the victory.

The points were not nearly as attainable for Ohio State against an Illinois team that always plays the Buckeyes tough and had a week off to prepare for this encounter. The Buckeyes came into the 11 a.m. local start game averaging 33.2 points per first half through the first four games of the season, but the first half yielded just two Buckeye scores... just enough for the team to hold 14-10 lead on the strength of two Pryor touchdown passes.

Pryor was 6 of 12 passing for 48 yards in the first half and he also threw one interception. He found Brandon Saine and Dane Sanzenbacher for short touchdown pass plays that were each set up by his own long runs of 66 and 35 yards. Pryor's 100-yard afternoon was the sixth 100-yard rushing game of his career and his third of the season.

After Illinois took a quick 7-0 lead with a touchdown on its first possession, Pryor marched the Buckeyes for a game-tying touchdown in four plays. He started the drive with a career-long 66-yard run on first down that set the Buckeyes up with a first and goal. Pryor then found Saine in the end zone for the score.

The Illini had a fine opportunity to kick the pressure up a notch on Ohio State early in the second quarter. Its defense held Ohio State on downs inside the Buckeye 5 yard line and the ensuing punt set Illinois up with a first down at the Ohio State 34. But the drive stalled and a 41-yard field goal attempt by Derek Dimke was short.

The Illini defense did its part by holding the Buckeyes scoreless on the ensuing drive that had reached its 30. And then on Ohio State's next possession, Trulon Henry intercepted Pryor – one of two Henry interceptions on the day – on first down to give the Illini a first down at the Ohio

Junior running back Dan "Boom" Herron rushed for a season-high 95 yards and scored the game-clinching touchdown in the final minutes.

State 24. Dimke converted on a 27-yard field goal to give the Illini a 10-7 lead.

Pryor then went 35 yards down the right sideline on Ohio State's next possession that was capped by his 11-yard toss to Sanzenbacher, giving the Buckeyes their 14-10 lead.

Devin Barclay kicked a 32-yard field goal for the only third-quarter points, giving Ohio State a 17-10 lead.

Ohio State's defense was led by 10 tackles from Brian Rolle and a career-high nine from Nathan Williams. Jermale Hines recorded his third career interception, a second half pick of Scheelhaase. That trio was part of a unit that allowed just 251 total yards and 11 first downs, including just one first down in the second half and only three points. The defense also broke Illinois back Mikel Leshoure's streak of five consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

Illinois had 251 total yards. Ohio State netted 290 offensive yards and was 4-of-4 in the red zone with three touchdowns and one field goal.

GAME 6 VS INDIANA

OCT. 9, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,291)

ESPN/3D

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Terrelle Pryor threw for a career high 334 yards, including 280 yards in the first half alone, to spark No. 2 Ohio State to its 12th consecutive win, 38-10, over Indiana Saturday in Ohio Stadium. The win was the 100th at Ohio State for 10th-year head coach Jim Tressel.

Pryor hit Dane Sanzenbacher (22 yards), Brandon Saine (60 yards) and DeVier Posey (17 yards) for first half touchdowns to put the home team in control with a 31-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, Pryor completed five-of-six passes on the drive, capped off by an eight-yard touchdown run by Dan "Boom" Herron to complete his career afternoon.

Tressel is the third-fastest coach in Big Ten history to win 100 games. He accomplished the feat in 121 games. Fielding Yost and Bo Schembechler each won 100 in 119 games.

"We prepared well this week and you could tell they were focused," Tressel said. "We came out from the get go and they were disciplined with their execution and took control of the game off the first scoring drive.

"It's exciting every time you win. We've had a lot of awfully good players here with a coaching staff that has been outstanding. A lot of those 100 wins were at home. We have great fans and this is a place where if they let you stay long enough, you should be able to win 100."

Ohio State's defense was dominant against an Indiana offense that came into the game with the nation's fourth-best passing attack at nearly 350 yards per game. Behind interceptions from Devon Torrence and Brian Rolle, the defense limited Indiana to 41 passing yards and 210 total yards for the game.

Ohio State took control of the game early. As quick as one could say "completion Pryor" three times and then "Boom" for 39 yards, the Buckeyes had the Indiana Hoosiers in a 7-0 hole.

Torrence picked off Ben Chappell on Indiana's second series, setting the Buckeyes up on the IU 33. Three plays later Pryor fired a 22-yard strike to Sanzenbacher over the middle for a 14-0 lead. The turnover was just the third for IU all season.

Early in the second quarter Pryor and Saine hooked up on a 60-yard pass play to extend the lead to 21-0 and put the Hoosiers in a difficult situation.

Chappell was intercepted again with 9:22 to go in the half. Ross Homan tipped a pass about seven yards deep in the right flats, tipped it again and finally a third time with his foot as he was falling and Rolle picked the ball out of the air just inches off the turf to set Ohio State up, again, in excellent field position. Five plays later, Pryor had his third touchdown pass of the half to a third different receiver: 17 yards to Posey for a 28-0 lead.

Devin Barclay's 31-yard field goal with 46 seconds

Terrelle Pryor recorded career highs of 24 completions and 334 yards to go along with three TDs in the win over the Hoosiers.

showing on the clock closed out the first half scoring.

Following Herron's touchdown run to begin the second half, Indiana got on the scoreboard during its second drive with a 36-yard field goal by Mitch Ewald at 4:50 to make it, 38-3.

In the fourth quarter, Indiana backup quarterback Dusty Kiel was put into the game and helped lead a 10-play 51-yard drive ending with a one-yard touchdown run by Antonio Banks to finalize the score, 38-10.

Buckeye defensive back Dominic Clarke recorded his first career interception in the final seconds of the game on a pass to the endzone by Hoosier quarterback Edward Wright-Baker.

GAME 7 AT WISCONSIN

OCT. 16, 2010 - CAMP RANDALL STADIUM (81,194)

ESPN/3D

MADISON, Wis. – Wisconsin played virtually flawless football in all facets of the game and scored the final 10 points to send the No. 1-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes to a 31-18 defeat in front of 81,194 supercharged Badger fans at Camp Randall Stadium.

The Badgers improved to 6-1 overall and 2-1 in the Big Ten – the identical records now of the Buckeyes – by building a 21-0 first half lead sparked by an opening kickoff touchdown return, withstanding an 18-point comeback by Ohio State and then putting the game away with a clinching touchdown by James White with 6:57 to go in the game.

“I was proud of the way our kids fought back,” Coach Jim Tressel said. “A lesser bunch in an environment like this may have folded their tents ... but to Wisconsin’s credit, they stepped up and kept that 10-point cushion and came up with the win.”

John Clay became the first running back in 29 games to break 100 yards rushing against the Buckeyes, netting 104 yards and two touchdowns. White, his backfield partner, was equally effective with 75 yards on 17 carries.

Quarterback Scott Tolzien was lights out for the Badgers as well, completing 13 of 16 passes for 152 yards, including a 20-yard completion to Nick Toon on third down to extend the fourth-quarter winning drive.

Ohio State’s Dan Herron scored both of the team’s touchdowns while rushing for 91 yards off 19 carries. He scored on a 13-yard run from the “wildcat” formation to cap Ohio State’s first drive of the second half and inch the team to within 21-10. He bulled over from the 1 early in the fourth quarter and with Terrelle Pryor finding Reid Fragel for the two-point conversion, the Buckeyes were within three at 21-18 with more than 11 minutes left to play.

The Badgers, who hadn’t defeated Ohio State in three games with Bret Bielema as coach, then marched 73 yards in 10 plays for the winning drive with Clay and White finishing it off by rushing for 28 of the final 37 yards to pay dirt.

Pryor was 14-for-28 passing for 156 yards and one interception...that coming at the end of the game. He also rushed for 56 net yards. He was sacked three times for minus-21 yards.

David Gilreath returned the opening kickoff 97 yards to give Wisconsin a real quick 7-0 lead. It was the fourth special teams touchdown by an Ohio State opponent this year.

Wisconsin then powered the football 68 yards down the field on its first possession of the game, with Clay rushing for 51 of those yards, including a 14-yard touchdown run.

The Badgers extended their lead after an 18-play, 89-yard scoring drive with Clay scoring again, this time from the 1, to give the Badgers a 21-0 lead with more than 13 minutes remaining in the second quarter.

The Badger defense stepped up big time to twice thwart the Buckeye offense. It held the Buckeyes to a Devin Barclay 21-yard field goal midway through the second quarter despite Ohio State having a first-and-goal at the 3. And then after Andrew Sweat intercepted Tolzien in Badger territory on the next possession, the Badgers got a third down sack and Barclay was wide on a 45-yard field goal attempt.

The loss snapped a 12-game winning streak for Ohio State and it also snapped a 12-game road winning streak as the No. 1 team in the nation, a streak that dated to 1975 and included wins at West Virginia (1998), at Texas, Iowa and Michigan State (2006) and at Penn State (2007).

GAME 8 VS PURDUE

OCT. 23, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,387)

BIG TEN NETWORK

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Playing with a bit of an edge from the Wisconsin loss and with a firm realization of the havoc that Purdue is capable of creating, No. 11 Ohio State shutout the Boilermakers, 49-0, in the 89th Homecoming Game at Ohio Stadium.

The win helped the Buckeyes bounce back from the loss at Wisconsin one week prior and improved the team to 20-2 under Jim Tressel after a loss.

The Buckeyes jumped out to a 42-0 halftime lead behind a 415 offensive yards - a first-half record for a Jim Tressel-coached Buckeye team and the most since 1998 - and a defense that didn't let Purdue cross the 50 and limited the Boilermakers to 44 first half yards.

"Our guys came out ready to go, and set the tone early with a nice opening touchdown," Tressel said after the game. "Our defense took over from there with a nice shutout."

Junior Terrelle Pryor enjoyed another big day for the Buckeyes, completing 16 of 22 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns, passing Troy Smith for third place on the all-time passing yards list. Dane Sanzenbacher hauled in four passes for 86 yards and a touchdown, while Dan Herron paced the Scarlet and Gray on the ground, totaling two touchdowns and 74 yards on 16 carries for the Buckeyes who have won 40 of its last 45 Big Ten conference games.

Ohio State set a punishing tone early, handing off to Herron five consecutive times on its first drive. He finished with a touchdown off the left side from the 10 for a quick 7-0 lead.

The Buckeyes went back to Herron on their third possession of the game, a series that was set up by a fumbled punt recovered by Jermale Hines. Herron ripped off a gain of nine yards to get the drive started and a 27-yard Pryor-to-DeVier Posey completion set the team up on the Purdue 1. Herron finished it off from there for a 14-0 lead.

Ohio State made it 21-0 early in the second quarter with an 11-play, 91-yard drive that Jordan Hall capped with another one-yard power play up the middle.

Three second-quarter Pryor touchdown passes increased the lead to 42-0. He hit Posey for a 22-yard score, Sanzenbacher with a seven-yarder and Corey Brown with a 15-yarder, Brown's first career touchdown reception.

The 42 first-half points were the most since scoring 45 in 2007 against Northwestern.

Ohio State controlled the clock for much of the second half behind the running back trio of Jaamal Berry, Carlos Hyde and Jordan Hall. Pryor played only two possessions in the third quarter before turning the ball over to Joe Bauserman and Kenny Guiton for the duration of the game.

Purdue continued to struggle on offense in the second stanza against the Silver Bullet defense, totaling only 74 yards over the final two periods for a game total of 118, the lowest offensive output against the Buckeyes this season. Despite starting inside Ohio State territory several times in the second half, the Boilermakers were unable to capitalize. Purdue's best chance to score came late in the fourth, as Carson Wiggs' 56-yard field goal attempt fell short of the goal post.

GAME 9 AT MINNESOTA

OCT. 30, 2010 - TCF BANK STADIUM (48,717)

ABC

MINNEAPOLIS – Terrelle Pryor threw for 222 yards and two touchdowns and Dan Herron rushed for 114 yards and another score in the first half to lead the 10th-ranked Buckeyes to a 52-10 victory over Minnesota.

Pryor completed 18 of 22 passes and also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown for the Buckeyes, trying to ram their way back into the national championship picture.

MarQueis Gray had three catches for 81 yards for Minnesota, which has lost eight straight games.

Dan Orskes's 10-yard punt just before halftime led to Ohio State's fourth touchdown of the half, and the Buckeyes also scored off a blocked punt and had a 70-yard punt return by Jordan Hall.

After a disappointing loss at Wisconsin two weeks ago, the Buckeyes bounced back to outscore Purdue and Minnesota 101-10.

DeVier Posey had six catches for 115 yards and a touchdown, as Ohio State racked up 507 total yards.

The Buckeyes battered Minnesota's Adam Weber all night, sacking him five times, intercepting him once and forcing two fumbles, including one that John Simon returned 30 yards for a touchdown.

Weber was 9 for 20 for 162 yards.

The Gophers trailed 31-10 at halftime, and a sparsely populated student section at TCF Bank Stadium was virtually empty by midway through the third quarter.

Playing with nothing to lose, interim coach Jeff Horton promised to be aggressive against the Buckeyes. After giving up a touchdown on the opening possession, the Gophers went right at them.

Weber completed a 35-yard pass to Gray on their first play and hit Tiree Eure for 32 yards two plays later to set up DeLeon Eskridge's 7-yard score to tie the game.

The Buckeyes put together a 13-play drive for a touchdown and kicked a field goal to take a 10-point lead, then just continued to lean on the smaller, deflated Gophers for the rest of the first half to gradually take control.

Herron rushed five times on a six-play drive late in the second quarter, the last a 10-yard burst around the corner for a 24-7 lead. He didn't get a carry in the second half.

Orskes's shank gave Ohio State the ball at its 47 with 36 seconds to play in the first half. Pryor hit Posey for a 38-yard touchdown 12 seconds later, and it was all over.

Sophomore defensive lineman John Simon was one of seven Buckeyes to score a touchdown in the win at Minnesota. Here he returns a fumble 30 yards in the fourth quarter.

Ohio State has a bye next week and then finishes the season with a home game against Penn State and a road trip to Iowa before the annual showdown with Michigan at the Horseshoe in the finale.

"We know November is going to be turned up a notch," Tressel said. "If we'll go to work and get ready for November, you never know what can happen."

GAME 10 VS PENN STATE

NOV. 13, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,466)

ABC/ESPN

COLUMBUS, Ohio - No. 9 Ohio State reeled off 35 unanswered points in the second half to come back from an 11-point halftime deficit and secure a 38-14 win over Penn State Saturday before 105,466 fans at Ohio Stadium. Ohio State remains on pace for a sixth consecutive Big Ten championship by improving its records to 9-1 overall and 5-1 in the Big Ten.

A week after the Nittany Lions scored 35 unanswered points to surge to a 35-21 victory against Northwestern (Penn State head coach Joe Paterno's 400th career win), PSU found itself on the other side of a scoring barrage.

Defensive backs Devon Torrence and Travis Howard each returned interceptions for touchdowns and the offense scored 21 points of its own in the second half to account for the 35-point swing. Terrelle Pryor tossed a pair of touchdowns and Dan "Boom" Herron found the endzone on a 5-yard rush to begin the scoring for the Buckeyes.

Herron accounted for 203 of the Scarlet and Gray's 453 offensive yards, including a career-high 190 yards on 21 rushes and the third-quarter touchdown. Safety Orhian Johnson led the Silver Bullets with eight tackles while helping hold Penn State to just 18 passing yards in the second half.

Howard's 30-yard interception return was flanked by Pryor's two touchdowns through the air in the fourth quarter. Pryor's 3-yard pass to Jake Stoneburner with 3:59 to play cemented the final score at 38-14. Before the Howard pick-six, Dane Sanzenbacher made a highlight-reel grab off a deflection from Posey and two PSU defenders at the 5-yard line on Pryor's 58-yard pass, before walking into the endzone to push the lead to 24-14.

Pryor completed 8 of 13 passes for 139 yards and a pair of touchdowns, along with an interception.

Herron's 5-yard touchdown run on the Buckeyes' first drive of the second half capped off a drive that started at the Ohio State 2-yard line to bring the score to 14-10. Just over two minutes later, Torrence stepped in front of Matt McGloin's pass and raced 34 yards to the endzone to put the Buckeyes on top, 17-14, with 4:29 left in the third quarter.

McGloin, making just his third start, threw for 159 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions while completing 15 of 30 passes. The sophomore walk-on was 13 of 18 in the first half en route to a 14-3 Nittany Lion halftime lead.

Penn State had not thrown for a touchdown pass in eight games at Ohio Stadium as a member of the Big Ten. But McGloin put that stat to bed quickly, throwing a touchdown pass to Justin Brown (23 yards) on Penn State's second possession of the game and adding another in the second quarter to Derek Moyer from six yards. The touchdown passes erased an early 3-0 Ohio State lead.

Senior corner Devon Torrence returned this interception 34 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, the first of two INTs for touchdowns by the Buckeyes in the game.

The Nittany Lions had 212 offensive yards while Ohio State managed just 147 yards in the first half. Penn State only produced 60 yards in the second half to finish with 272.

Ohio State struck early with a 49-yard pass play down the right sideline to the Penn State 12 from Pryor to DeVier Posey. Devin Barclay kicked a 26-yard field goal when the drive stalled to give Ohio State a quick 3-0 lead.

McGloin put Penn State into the lead by engineering a 10-play, 67-yard drive that was capped by his TD pass to Brown. McGloin then drove the Nittany Lions 82 yards in 11 plays with his pass to Moyer giving Penn State its halftime spread.

GAME 11 AT IOWA

NOV. 20, 2010 - KINNICK STADIUM (70,585) ABC

IOWA CITY, Iowa – In a game that was as close to an NFC North divisional battle as a college game could get, No. 9 Ohio State defeated No. 20 Iowa in come-from-behind fashion, 20-17, at 40-degree-cold and sold-out Kinnick Stadium on the campus of the University of Iowa.

The win improved Ohio State's records to 10-1 overall and to 6-1 in the Big Ten Conference and it kept the Buckeyes on a track to win a Big Ten record-tying sixth consecutive Big Ten title. The 10 wins marked the sixth consecutive year for that feat by the Buckeyes, a first for any Big Ten school. Iowa drops to 7-4 overall and 4-3 in the Big Ten.

The game featured two of the Top 5 defenses against the rush in America and two of the Top 20 defenses in terms of total defenses, and it was a hard-hitting battle from the very beginning. The Buckeyes managed 353 yards against the Hawkeyes with 135 of those yards coming in the fourth quarter when the Buckeyes rallied from a 17-10 deficit to score the final 10 points of the game. Iowa had just 276 yards against an Ohio State defense that featured 10 tackles and three TFL by Brian Rolle, nine punishing tackles from Jermale Hines and huge fourth-quarter quarterback sacks from John Simon and Cam Heyward.

Ohio State took its first lead of the game on its first series of the second half. Terrelle Pryor, who threw for 195 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions, directed a 12-play, 77-yard drive that consumed over six minutes. He connected with Reid Fragel for a five-yard score to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. The touchdown was the career first for Fragel.

Iowa tied it at 10 with 3:30 to go in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by Mike Meyer and, after Pryor's second interception gave the Hawkeyes the ball at the Ohio State 30, Iowa scored two plays later for a 17-10 lead.

With 11:53 left to play, Pryor quarterbacked an 11-play, 30-yard drive that cut the lead to 17-13 when Devin Barclay connected on a clutch, career-long 48-yard field goal into a light breeze.

Ohio State's defense held, with Simon sacking Hawkeye quarterback Ricky Stanzi, who threw for 195 yards and one touchdown, on first down and batting down a Stanzi pass on third down.

Ohio State got the ball back with 6:05 left to play and over the next 4:18 Ohio drove 76 yards with Dan "Boom" Herron scoring the game-winning points from the 1 with 1:47 to play. Pryor converted a fourth-and-10 play from the 50 by rushing for 14 yards, and he connected with Dane Sanzenbacher on a 24-yard sideline pass play that gave Ohio State a first and goal from the 2. Herron scored two plays later.

There was still plenty of time for Iowa, but the Buckeyes were up for the challenge, forcing a four-and-out with Heyward's sack of Stanzi forcing a fourth-and-21 from the Iowa 21. Stanzi completed his fourth down pass, but for a gain of only 19 yards as Hines and Ross Homan converged to make the final tackle of the night for the Buckeyes.

Sanzenbacher made one big catch after another to finish with six catches for 102 yards. Herron rushed for 69 yards, caught five passes for 30 yards and scored a touchdown for a 10th consecutive game. Pryor led all rushers for the game with 78 yards.

Iowa led 7-3 at halftime as Stanzi hit Marvin McNutt with a 19-yard touchdown pass over the middle late in the first quarter. Barclay, who kicked an overtime game-winner last year against Iowa, kicked an 18 yard field goal for Ohio State's first-half points.

The win was Ohio State's fourth consecutive over Iowa and the 12th in the last 13 games.

GAME 12 VS MICHIGAN

NOV. 27, 2010 - OHIO STADIUM (105,491)

ABC

COLUMBUS, Ohio - No. 8 Ohio State defeated Michigan, 37-7, Saturday before 105,491 fans in the 107th edition of "The Game" to win a share of its sixth consecutive Big Ten Conference championship and in the process extend its winning streak over its rival to seven straight wins. The attendance was the seventh-largest in Ohio Stadium history and the fourth largest to witness an Ohio State/Michigan game.

"This was an important day for us," head coach Jim Tressel, who improves to 9-1 vs. Michigan, said. "Representing the 1942 team was a lot of responsibility because not only were they champions, they were heroes. We also had to represent our seniors because they are first class and do things the way you are suppose to do them. They are unselfish and don't care if they have the spotlight. They just want to help Ohio State. I'm so proud of these guys. Our guys fought all day long. I thought that kickoff return was a key factor after they scored the touchdown. Our kids prepared and played hard and they deserved everything they had coming to them."

Jordan Hall's 85-yard kickoff return and a 24-point second quarter sent the Buckeyes on their way after the two teams were scoreless through the first quarter. The win improved Ohio State's record to 11-1 overall and 7-1 in the Big Ten while Michigan dropped to 7-5 and 3-5.

Terrelle Pryor led the Ohio State offense by passing for 220 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 18 of 27 passes, with wideouts DeVier Posey and Dane Sanzenbacher combining for eight receptions for 153 yards with each catching a touchdown pass.

Dan "Boom" Herron rushed for 175 yards, including an 89-yarder, and scored on a 32-yard touchdown run - the 11th consecutive game he has scored a touchdown - to give Ohio State a 31-7 lead early in the third quarter. Herron's total sent the junior over the 1,000 yard mark for the first time in his career. He heads into the bowl game with 1,068 yards rushing.

Hall's return, the first by a Buckeye this year, came midway through the second quarter after Robinson had engineered an 80-yard scoring drive to cut into a 10-0 Ohio State lead. Big blocks on the return were delivered by Zach Boren and Nate Ebner. Hall made two dandy cuts to his right to avoid tackles.

The offense was slow to come for both teams, but leading 3-0 on a 33-yard Devin Barclay field goal, Ohio State took off after an 18-yard punt by Michigan set the Buckeyes up at the UM 35 early in the second quarter. The Buckeyes marched into the end zone in five plays with Pryor hitting Sanzenbacher with a seven-yard pass over the middle. Pryor scrambled out of trouble on third down, and just before going out of bounds, hit Taurian Washington for a 13-yard gain to extend the drive.

After Hall's return and leading 17-7, Ohio State went 62 yards in six plays with Pryor finding Posey over the middle for a 33-yard catch, run and dive touchdown play. Barclay's extra point made it 24-7.

One series after Herron's third-quarter touchdown, Ohio State went up 34-7 on another Barclay field goal, this one from 36 yards. The score was set up after Herron burst 98 yards for a touchdown, but he was credited with an 89-yard rush after holding was called at the end of the run. The play tied Gene Fekete's 89-yard run in the 1942 game vs. Pitt as the longest play from scrimmage in Ohio State history.

Another Barclay field goal from 23 yards increased the lead to 37-7 entering the fourth quarter.

The Wolverines had an opportunity to score their second touchdown of the game but was denied on fourth down when senior defensive back Jermale Hines broke up a Tate Forcier pass inside the Buckeyes' 10-yard line with 8:15 left in the fourth.

Robinson rushed for 105 yards - 87 passing - which totaled 351 yards of offense on the day. Ohio State totaled 478 yards.

GAME 13 VS ARKANSAS

JAN. 4, 2011 - NEW ORLEANS SUPERDOME (73,879)

ESPN

NEW ORLEANS, La. – “Lessez Les Bon Temps Roulez!”

As they say in French down here: “Let the good times roll!” No. 6 Ohio State snapped an 0-9 streak against SEC teams in bowl games by holding on late vs. No. 8 Arkansas Razorbacks for a 31-26 nail-biter in the Allstate Sugar Bowl before 73,879 fans.

The Buckeyes finish 2010 with a 12-1 record while Arkansas dropped to 10-3. In addition, the win also allowed Ohio State to tie Southern California with its sixth Bowl Championship Series bowl victory, an FBS record.

Terrelle Pryor, who had 336 total yards of offense and two TD passes, was named MVP of the bowl, but it was reserve defensive lineman Solomon Thomas who came up with the most unexpected play of the game.

After Ohio State failed to salt away the game clock and was forced to punt from its own 38-yard line with just more than a minute remaining, Arkansas blocked Ben Buchanan's kick and recovered the ball at the OSU 18.

Following an Arkansas incompletion on first down, Thomas drifted back into coverage and picked off Mallett for his first career interception and what turned out to be the game-sealing play. Pryor took a knee in victory formation, ending the drama to the joy of thousands of Buckeye fans who made the trek to the Big Easy.

Ohio State went wild in the first half by scoring four touchdowns behind a dominant offense to build a 28-10 lead at the break. The Buckeyes would only muster a 47-yard field goal by Devin Barclay in the second half, opening the door for the Razorback rally.

On its first possession, Ohio State marched 74 yards in eight plays to grab a quick 7-0 lead. Pryor capped the drive with a 37-yard running play. He fumbled at the end and Sanzenbacher recovered it in the end zone for the score. Corey “Philly” Brown had a big 13-yard reception on third down to keep the drive alive.

The Buckeyes went 68 yards in seven plays for a touchdown on their second possession for a 14-7 lead at the 7:17 mark of the first quarter. A 31-yard completion to Sanzenbacher set Ohio State up on the Arkansas 21 and Dan “Boom” Herron rushed twice to cover the remaining yards to pay dirt for his 12th consecutive game with a score. Herron finished the game with 87 yards on 24 carries.

After Arkansas failed on a fourth and 1 play from the Ohio State 30 when Cameron Heyward batted away a Mallett pass at the line of scrimmage, Ohio State drove 70 yards for its third score of the game. Pryor fired a perfect pass to a well-defended Sanzenbacher, but the senior from Toledo made the catch for a 15-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Ohio State lead. A big play in the drive was a 42-yard completion from Pryor to Reid Fragel down to the Arkansas 28. Sanzenbacher totaled three catches in the game for 59 yards.

Just inside of two minutes to play in the half, Ohio State struck again. Pryor found DeVier Posey with a 43-yard touchdown pass play. Posey made a marvelous catch, turning 180 degrees to pull the ball in over his left shoulder to extend the lead to 28-7. Pryor's impressive stat line included 115 yards on 15 carries and 221 more yards through the air on 14 of 25 passing.

Arkansas had initially tied the score at 7-apiece when Mallett connected first with D.J. Williams on an 18-yard gainer and then with Joey Williams on the game-tying touchdown one play later. The 51-yard drive was set up by a short Ohio State kickoff.

Arkansas kicked a field goal at the end of the first half to cut the lead to 28-10. Another field goal early in the third quarter got the Hog fans going once again with the score 28-13.

With momentum now in the Arkansas corner, Mallett led and capped another third-quarter scoring drive, finding Jarius Wright for a 22-yard touchdown in the corner of the endzone despite blanket coverage by OSU senior DB Devon Torrence. Mallett then found D.J. Williams in the flat for a successful 2-point conversion and a 31-21 score. The drive covered 75 yards on seven plays and took just 58 seconds.

In the fourth quarter, Arkansas used another win in the field position battle and tackled Herron in the in the endzone for a safety, making the score 31-23 with 11:52 to play.

A 24-yard Mallett connection to Wright highlighted the ensuing Arkansas drive before kicker Zach Hocker booted a 47-yard field goal, cutting the Ohio State lead to just five at 31-26.

Now entangled in a one-possession game, several Pryor scrambles moved the chains for the Buckeyes on their next drive. However, a Herron fumble on a fourth and a foot play at the 37 yard-line with 6:10 to play gave Arkansas possession in OSU territory. Ohio State recovered the loose ball but lost yardage turned the ball back to the Razorbacks.

The Buckeye defense stiffened and forced a three and out from Arkansas, but again found itself staring at a long field taking possession at the 4-yard line. Herron gave the Buckeyes breathing room, busting off tackle for a 17-yard gain on first down. The collective exhale from the Ohio State fan base did not last long as the drive stalled, Buchanan's block punt followed before Thomas saved the day.

Ohio Stadium is one of the most recognizable landmarks in all of sports. Built in 1922 at a cost of $1.3 million and refurbished in 2001 for slightly more than $194 million, the horseshoe-shaped stadium is a monument to college football. As part of the renovation, the once portable South Stands became a permanent fixture.

Ohio Stadium is listed in the National Registry of Historic Places. Anyone who has seen a game in the giant horseshoe understands why. There are few experiences in athletics that are more enjoyable!

LES WEXNER FOOTBALL COMPLEX AT THE WOODY HAYES ATHLETIC CENTER

All 33,000 square feet of the original facility has been renovated, while an additional 52,700 square feet was added TAKING THE OVERALL SQUARE FOOTAGE TO 85,700.

When the Woody Hayes Athletic Center was dedicated in 1987, it was one of the most extensive indoor facilities of its kind. Now, nearly 20 years later, a $19.5 million facelift is complete. The recent enhancements to the building solidify the Buckeyes' football practice facility as ONE OF THE NATION'S BEST.

PLAYERS' LOUNGE

A new 3,700-square foot players' lounge, including a study room with the latest in computer technology.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

More than 13,000 square feet of state of the art equipment and an 1,800-square foot second story cardio fitness area.

LOBBY

A 2,400-square foot lobby provides a distinctive entry for the football complex complete with a championship wall, memorabilia displays and a small theatre for the public that provides highlights of Ohio State football, both past and present.

TEAM LOCKER ROOM

The team locker room has been fully renovated and updated with new lockers for each of the players.

OFFICES

The coaches and support staff will benefit from approximately 7,500 square feet of office space.

HYDROTHERAPY POOLS

The hydrotherapy pool area with three pools, including a polar-plunge pool, a thermal-plunge pool and a large therapy pool, complete with the latest video technology.

OTHER AMENITIES

An indoor racquetball court and half-basketball court were also included in the facility upgrade.

HARMON FAMILY FOOTBALL PARK

A TOUCH OF CLASS

A $5 million gift from the Harmon family of Toledo ensures the Buckeyes of today and tomorrow will prepare on the finest football practice fields in the country.

"Now we have a practice facility that a championship football program like Ohio State University should have."

Those words were overheard on the first day of Ohio State's 2010 fall camp from a longtime college football coach and administrator as he stood on the state-of-the-art and classy Harmon Family Football Park. The words weren't necessarily intended for anyone to hear, but they ring so true.

The Harmon Family Football Park, named for Jole and Jim Harmon of Toledo and their family, provides Ohio State football with one of the finest, if not the finest, practice fields in all of college football... perhaps even all of football. The Football Park includes textbook practice fields and features one awesome and aesthetic attribute after another.

- Team videographers can film from any of four giant towers — gray with scarlet roofing — with viewing platforms at 35- and 55-feet high.
- A six-speaker-two-sub-woofer system enables the team to simulate loud crowd noise. • Six towers hold 248 giant lights that will have no trouble lighting the four fields.
- Yes, indeed: the Buckeyes now have four practice fields — two FieldTurf fields like the Ohio Stadium turf, and two natural grass fields.

All this and more for current and future Buckeyes and coaches because one benevolent family, one gracious family from northeastern Ohio that truly loves The Ohio State University, wanted to make a lasting impact to the football program. Their $5 million gift to the Department of Athletics and the football program funded the construction of the $5.2 million park.

"This is such a special opportunity for the Harmon family," Jim Harmon said while enjoying the festivities at the 2010 Big Ten Conference football media days. "It is such an honor for us to be able to give to the Ohio State Department of Athletics and the football program. This facility will have our name on it forever. That is something that is very special to us."

That is something that is very special to The Ohio State University, as well. The University will honor the Harmons into the Pay Forward Society during the game tonight. And generations of future Buckeyes will be honored to play in the Harmon Family Football Park.

"The gift from the Harmon family displays the strong belief they have in the program," Dane Sanzenbacher, a senior co-captain from Toledo, Ohio, said. "They believe in the direction of this program."

"With every deed you are sowing a seed, though the harvest you may not see."

OHIO STATE TRADITIONS

BUCKEYE LEAVES

A round white decal, about the size of a quarter, with a green depiction of a buckeye leaf is applied to Ohio State football helmets for big plays and consistency on the field. This tradition started in 1968 when football coach Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. Many of the sports at Ohio State incorporate Buckeye Leaves into their equipment and uniforms.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State University Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home football games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with a senior sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot where the sousaphone player then assumes the post of honor, doffs his or her hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

Woody Hayes, Bob Hope and Jack Nicklaus are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i."

First performed at the OSU-Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936, Script Ohio was named one of Athlon Sports' 10 Greatest Football Traditions in 1999.

BRUTUS BUCKEYE

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened paper mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

HOMECOMING

First recognized in 1912, Homecoming began as "Ohio State Day." It was initiated by Professor (and later OSU President) George W. Rightmire. Homecoming was designed to bring the alumni back to the university and celebrate.

The celebration has been noted, among other things, for the decorating of Greek chapter facilities and university dormitories.

The parade is another tradition Buckeyes' hold high. The parade did not become a time-honored tradition until it joined the schedule permanently in 1965.

In 1926, student supporters wishing to pull a practical joke on the university, convinced the community that Maudine Ormsby was to be honored as queen. She was so popular on campus, she won the vote. Maudine actually turned out to be a cow, the only cow ever elected as homecoming queen.

TBDBITL

"The Best Damn Band in the Land" is the 225-member, all-brass Ohio State University Marching Band that formed in 1879 as a military band. Also known as "The Pride of the Buckeyes," the band perhaps is best known for the incomparable Script Ohio. Another band tradition of note is the "skull session," a warmup concert/pep rally in St. John Arena, open to the public before every home football game that allows the band to play and "think through" the show one last time. More than 10,000 fans regularly attend each skull session.

CHEERLEADERS

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the northeast region in 20 of the last 22 years. The squad was sixth at the 2009 national championships. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state of Ohio throughout the year.

SCARLET AND GRAY

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

TUNNEL OF PRIDE

The brainchild of ex-OSU quarterback Rex Kern and former Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, the Tunnel of Pride actually started in 1995, when Notre Dame visited Ohio Stadium for the first meeting between the two teams in nearly 50 years. In an effort to generate even more emotion, excitement and enthusiasm than already existed, Kern and Geiger reached out to former Buckeye football players who were attending the game and asked them to form a tunnel for the team to run through as it came onto the field. Thus a tradition was born, which is now continued every other year when Michigan visits Ohio Stadium.

VICTORY BELL

Located in the southeast tower of Ohio Stadium, the Victory Bell is rung after every Ohio State victory. It was a gift of the classes of 1943, 1944 and 1945. Resting 150-feet up in the southeast tower, members of Alpha Phi Omega ring the bell after victories, a tradition that began after OSU beat California Oct. 2, 1954. On a calm day, it is said the bell can be heard five miles away. The bell weighs 2,420 pounds and cost $2,535 to install.

BUCKEYE GROVE

Since 1934, a Buckeye tree has been planted in honor of each Ohio State All-American. Trees are usually planted in a pregame ceremony at the spring game. With the renovation of Ohio Stadium in 2001, the Buckeye Grove is now located at the southwest corner of the stadium.

BLOCK O

An Ohio State University and Ohio Stadium tradition, Block "O" celebrated its 70th anniversary last year. Known for spreading spirit, starting cheers and performing card stunts, Block "O" was founded in 1938 by Clancy Isaac. After seeing a cheering section at the University of Southern California, Isaac decided that it was something Ohio State needed. Seventy-one years later, Block "O" is Ohio State's largest student organization on campus and has gained local and national recognition.

CAPTAINS' BREAKFAST

Started in 1934, this annual event is held on Homecoming weekend. All past captains are invited back for a breakfast and to welcome in the new captains.

GOLD PANTS

A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else." Schmidt's Buckeyes then went and defeated Michigan four consecutive times, all by shutout.

THE MICHIGAN GAME

The annual Ohio State-Michigan football game was No. 1 on a list of the 10 Greatest Rivalries In Sports compiled by the editorial staff at ESPN.com in 1999. There simply is no greater rivalry in college athletics.

THE ILLIBUCK TROPHY

The winner of the Ohio State – Illinois game has received the Illibuck trophy since the tradition began in 1925. Illibuck was a live turtle, but has been a wooden replica since 1927. Also representative of the rivalry is the peace pipe. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to the winning school from the previous year.

SENIOR TACKLE

A last practice of the year tradition since 1913 where the seniors hit the blocking sled one final time, for many years it was held following the last practice prior to the season finale with Michigan. But depending upon the Buckeyes' bowl obligation, it has sometimes been moved to the last home practice before the team departs for its postseason game.

SCHOOL SONGS

Ohio State proudly boasts an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloop).

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

Won five national titles (1970, 1968, 1961, 1957 and 1954) • Won 13 Big Ten championships • Won 205 overall and 152 conference games • Led Ohio State to 11 bowl games (eight Rose Bowls) • Took Ohio State to four consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75) • Produced 56 first team All-Americans • Coached three Heisman Trophy and three Outland Trophy winners • Coached two Lombardi Award winners

FOR 28
FOOTBALL

A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched countless lives along the way.

WOODY HAYES HEAD COACH, 1951-1978

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (narrowly missing four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. Twice, the Buckeyes won a conference-record 17 consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972, '73, '74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first team All-America honors. He coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. During the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence still lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.

“HE’S A BETTER
THAN HE IS A
THE BEST
I’VE EVER SEEN.”

ARCHIE GRIFFIN

1974, 1975 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. He is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But though more than three decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now president of the Ohio State Alumni Association.

Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame in 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

His jersey number “45” was retired Sept. 30, 1999.

Or 25 first team All-Americans at Ohio State; Heisman, Lombardi, Thorpe, Lott, O'Brien, Butkus, Nagurski, Groza, Rimington, Walter Camp, Ray Guy, Wuerffel, Lowe's and Draddy award winners; 49 first team all-Big Ten selections. He guided the Buckeyes to an overall record of 94-21, nine bowl appearances (including seven BCS games), six 10-win seasons, six Big Ten titles and a national championship.

Tressel, who owned an overall record of 229-78-2 after his first 24 years as a head coach, was named as the Buckeyes' 22nd head coach Jan. 18, 2001. His first Ohio State squad earned a 7-5 record with a dramatic road win over Michigan in the regular-season finale. In 2002, Ohio State came from out of nowhere to capture the Big Ten's first consensus national title since 1968, posting a 13-0 regular-season record and then upsetting top-ranked Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in a 31-24 double-overtime thriller, becoming the first Division I-A school to record a 14-0 campaign.

During 2003, Tressel led the Buckeyes to an 11-2 record and their second consecutive BCS bowl appearance, where OSU defeated Kansas State in a return visit to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The 2004 Buckeyes attained an 8-4 record that included wins over Michigan in the regular-season finale and Oklahoma State in the MasterCard Alamo Bowl. In 2005, the 10-2 Buckeyes tied for the Big Ten title (7-1) and closed the season with back-to-back wins over Michigan and Notre Dame.

In 2006, Ohio State opened the season at No. 1 in the polls and held that ranking throughout the course of the regular season, the first team to go wire-to-wire at the top spot. Posting a 12-0 record during the regular season, Ohio State recorded wins over Texas and Michigan, both of which were ranked No. 2 at the time they played the Buckeyes, and played Florida in the BCS championship game in Arizona. In 2007, 11-2 Ohio State won another outright Big Ten title and carried the No. 1 ranking in the polls for five weeks, again advancing to the BCS title game, facing LSU in New Orleans. In 2008, the Buckeyes again won a share of the Big Ten title, polished off Michigan (42-7) for an OSU record fifth straight time, and faced Texas in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The 2009 season was another memorable year for Ohio State as the team won a sixth consecutive Big Ten crown, became the first school to defeat five 10-win teams in one season and capped the 11-2 campaign with a win over Oregon State in the Rose Bowl.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Tressel spent 15 seasons as head coach at Youngstown State, where he also served for a time as athletics director. His years there were ripe with success, the Penguins winning four national championships and qualifying for the Division I-AA playoffs a remarkable 10 times. During his stay at YSU, he compiled an overall record of 135-57-2 and was a four-time pick as the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year.

LECHARLES BENTLEY

2001 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

LeCharles Bentley was another in a long line of outstanding offensive linemen at Ohio State. During the 2001 season, he won consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors, was chosen as the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year and was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football. He became the 20th Ohio State player to win a major award.

Bentley, a native of Cleveland, enjoyed a stellar senior year, capping a brilliant career starting all 11 regular-season games and grading out to a winning performance in each game. Time and again, it was the 6-2, 300-pound Bentley who was called upon to provide the key block that either kept a drive alive or led to an Ohio State touchdown. He graded 90 percent or better in nine of the 11 games he played and was chosen as offensive lineman of the week five times. At the end of the season, the coaching staff selected him as the offensive player of the year.

Bentley was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He started the final seven games of the 1999 season (six at guard and one at tackle) before moving to center as a junior in 2000. He started all 12 games as a junior, playing through a painful lower back condition, and won second-team All-Big Ten honors.

At the end of his senior year, he won first-team All-America honors on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, and Associated Press teams. As a senior, Bentley faced the challenge of playing for a new coaching staff. He quickly won that group's confidence and admiration with his tough, smart and physical style of play.

A second-round pick of the New Orleans Saints in the 2002 NFL Draft, Bentley was named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Rookie of the Year. He earned two Pro Bowl selections during his career with the Saints and Cleveland Browns.

High school teacher, coach, college coach, professional football innovator... Paul Brown excelled at all tasks and ventures. Brown is considered by many to be the "father of the modern offense" and was highly acclaimed for his many ideas on planning and organization that changed the game of football.

With avid support from many influential groups, including the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association, Brown came from Massillon High School to become head coach at Ohio State Jan. 14, 1941. Under Brown, the Buckeyes went 18-8-1 and were known for their speed, intelligence and love of contact.

In his first season at the helm at OSU, Brown went 6-1-1, losing to an Otto Graham-led Northwestern and tying Michigan. The Buckeyes tied for second place in the Western Conference and finished 13th in the AP poll. The next year, 1942, despite lettermen to graduation or military service in World War II, Brown led the Buckeyes to Ohio State's first national championship using a team of three seniors, 16 juniors and 24 sophomores.

Following military service, Brown became the first head coach of the Cleveland Browns and also the Cincinnati Bengals. He won four AAFC championships and three NFL championships with the Browns, and was named professional coach of the year six times.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, Brown grew up in Massillon. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967 and the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991. He passed away in August, 1991, but forever left his influence on the game of football throughout Ohio and far beyond.

His first season was defined by an 8-0 conference record that earned the Buckeyes their first outright Big Ten title in four seasons. Ohio State entered the 1979 Rose Bowl ranked No. 1, but fell short of a national title 17-16 to USC; Bruce was named Big Ten and national coach of the year. A 31-28 win over Navy in the 1981 Liberty Bowl was the first of three consecutive bowl victories, (47-17 over BYU, 1982 Holiday Bowl; 28-23 Pitt, 1983 Fiesta Bowl). The Buckeyes went back to the Rose Bowl in 1984. The fourth Big Ten title the Buckeyes achieved under the fiery Bruce was in 1986, when Ohio State finished the season with a Cotton Bowl victory. He left Ohio State after the 1987 season with an 81-26-1 record, including a 5-3 mark in bowl games. Bruce, who was also head coach at Iowa State, Northern Iowa, Colorado State and in Arena Football, is a member of the College Football (2002), Ohio State (2004) and Iowa State (2000) halls of fame.

TAILBACK 1982-85

Keith Byars earned first team All-America honors, was Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a broken foot, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards. The Dayton, Ohio, native played 13 seasons in the NFL. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to out-jump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, Carter set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1986, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards and 11 touchdowns. ### 1995 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a long-shot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runner-up Tommy Frazier of Nebraska for college football's most coveted award.

As Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George rushed for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois Nov. 11, 1995.

JOE GERMAINE

QUARTERBACK 1996-98

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was 1996, his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a then-school-record 10 consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a five-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons. The Mesa, Arizona, product played five seasons in the NFL and is currently a starter in Arena Football.

TERRY GLENN

1995 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the 1995 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first-ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns, third-best in school history. His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record was topped by David Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15 career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, followed Cris Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pitt, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, another OSU record. He also had nine receptions, all of the acrobatic and clutch variety, in the Buckeyes' 28-25 win at Penn State.

A big-play athlete, Glenn had eight catches of 45 or more yards, including a memorable 82-yard catch-and-run TD grab against Notre Dame. He had touchdown receptions in nine of the 12 games he played in, and his numbers might have been even better had he not played the last three games of the season with a badly bruised shoulder.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school and was taken in the first round of the 1996 NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year and had 8,823 yards and 44 touchdowns in his 12-year career.

RANDY GRADISHAR

LINEBACKER 1971-73

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as "the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State." He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

CHIC HARLEY

RUNNING BACK 1916-17, 1919

Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the "House that Harley built." His jersey number 47 was retired in 2004.

A.J. HAWK

2005 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

A. J. Hawk capped a brilliant senior year by becoming Ohio State's fifth Lombardi Award winner, presented annually since 1970 to the best player in college football who lines up within five yards of the snap.

The 6-1, 247-pound Hawk finished the 2005 campaign with a team-high 121 tackles, marking the third consecutive year he had paced the Buckeyes in that category. His tackle totals included 16.5 tackles-for-loss and 9.5 sacks, both best on the team.

In addition to the Lombardi Award, Hawk was the 2005 Big Ten pre-season and post-season Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive MVP of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

A first-team All-American both as a junior and senior, Hawk closed his career as the fifth leading tackler in Ohio State history with 494 career stops, 41 tackles-for-loss and 9.5 sacks. His 141 tackles in 2004 were the most by an Ohio State player since 1986.

Hawk led the team in tackles in 10 of 12 games in 2005, including a season-high 19 stops against Michigan State. A four-year letterman, Hawk was elected co-captain as a senior, receiving a vote from every player on the team except for himself.

Players like A. J. Hawk don't come along very often. His intensity and passion for the game made him special. His long blond locks flowing out from beneath his helmet in tribute to the late Pat Tillman, he was literally all over the field making plays and encouraging his teammates. The 2005 Ohio State defense was one of the most formidable in the nation, leading the Big Ten in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and sacks. Needless to say, Hawk played a huge role in that success.

Following the season, Hawk was the fifth player taken in the 2006 NFL draft, going to the Green Bay Packers, his current team.

JOHN HICKS

1973 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1973 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Cappelletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter at right tackle as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes to the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A loss to Stanford in Pasadena cost the No.-1 ranked and previously unbeaten Buckeyes the national championship.

Hicks missed the entire 1971 season because of a preseason knee injury. Not coincidentally, the Buckeyes struggled to a 6-4 record that year.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning consensus All-America honors both of those seasons and helping the Buckeyes to two more Big Ten titles and back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 28-3-1. Hicks was the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

A fiery, emotional leader and a fan favorite, Hicks was a first-round draft choice of the

SANTONIO HOLMES

WIDE RECEIVER, 2003-05

A Buckeye standout from 2003-05, Antonio Holmes again put Ohio State into the NFL spotlight with his exploits in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa.

A 2006 first-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Belle Glade, Fla., native made his biggest contribution to the Black and Gold on February 1, 2009, when he snagged nine catches for 131 yards, the biggest with 36 seconds left for the game-winning score in football's biggest game.

With four receptions on the Steelers' last drive, Holmes went to the right corner of the endzone, scraping his toes to haul in the six-yard toss from Ben Roethlisberger. That amazing catch gave the Steelers a 27-23 lead in their sixth Super Bowl victory and gave Santonio the MVP trophy, only the sixth receiver and the first Buckeye ever to receive that recognition.

LES HORVATH

1944 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio, native accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1969) and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame (1977). His jersey number "22" was retired Oct. 6, 2001.

BOBBY HOYING

QUARTERBACK 1992-95

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first team all-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. His 57 career TD passes set a school record, as did the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) ranked second in OSU annals. An exceptional student, he won the 1995 National Football Foundation's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football. The native of St. Henry, Ohio, played six seasons in professional football. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

VIC JANOWICZ

1950 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him among the greatest athletes ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. The Elyria, Ohio, native also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-American in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconscious for 30 days.

A member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1976) and the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame (1977), Janowicz died in February of 1996. His jersey number, "31" was retired Sept. 23, 2000.

MALCOLM JENKINS

2008 THORPE AWARD WINNER

The premier defensive back in college football, cornerback Malcolm Jenkins earned consensus All-America honors during his tremendous senior season. Foregoing the NFL draft to complete his college career with the Buckeyes, Jenkins' attention to detail and commitment to excellence were unrivaled, setting a splendid standard for the Silver Bullet secondary.

Lean and lithe, Jenkins was known for relentless intensity on the field, demanding the highest performance standards from himself and his teammates. Voted team captain as a senior, this no-nonsense vocal leader was a starter on four Big Ten title teams, twice playing in the national championship game.

Earning consensus All-America accolades and a unanimous all-Big Ten selection, Jenkins realized one of his long-time goals when he won the 2008 Jim Thorpe Award over players from USC and Tennessee. The Piscataway, N.J., product was the first-round draft pick of the NFL's New Orleans Saints and graduated in June of his senior year.

PEPPER JOHNSON

LINEBACKER 1982-85

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982-85, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named all-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football. After 13 seasons as an NFL player, he began his coaching career with the New England Patriots. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

To say "Big Pete" had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 was a school record and 348 career points stood as the school record until the 2004 season. ## ANDY KATZENMOYER

1997 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Andy Katzenmoyer started te first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37 consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the 1997 Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore, and the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was a three-time all-Big Ten selection and a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award.

Katzenmoyer amassed three-year statistical totals of 197 solo tackles, 256 total tackles, 50 tackles-for-loss, 192 yards in losses, 18 quarterback sacks and six interceptions. He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

A consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997, he became only the second sophomore to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. In 1996 he became the first freshman to start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes, finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked total defense. A first-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, his professional career was cut short by injury.

REX KERN

QUARTERBACK 1968-70

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 national championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word. Earning three degrees from Ohio State, he played four seasons in the NFL. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1978 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

CRAIG KRENZEL

QUARTERBACK 2002-2003

Craig Krenzel was a two-year starter at quarterback for the Buckeyes. Taking over the offensive reins with almost no experience at the start of the 2002 season, the 6-4 signalcaller led the Buckeyes to a share of the Big Ten title, the national championship and a perfect 14-0 record. At the end of the season, Krenzel was selected by his teammates as co-MVP. A little less than a month later he was named as the Offensive MVP in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where he guided the Buckeyes to a thrilling 31-24 double overtime win over top-ranked Miami in the national title game. The leading rusher in the game, Krenzel's fourth-and-14 completion to Michael Jenkins in the first overtime kept OSU's title hopes alive. In 2003, Krenzel directed OSU to an 11-2 record and a second consecutive win in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. After throwing four touchdown passes against Kansas State in the latter, he was again selected as the game's Offensive MVP. Krenzel completed his career with a 24-3 mark as a starter, including a 2-1 record against Michigan. An honors graduate in molecular genetics, he swept the most prestigious academic awards, including the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy, the Socrates Award and the NCAA Today's Top VII. He spent three seasons in the NFL before retiring.

JIM LACHEY

OFFENSIVE GUARD 1981-84

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named first team All-America. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars, who led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards). In 1995, the San Diego Chargers drafted Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year NFL career, he was named All-Pro nine times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999. He is currently the analyst on the Buckeye radio broadcasts.

JAMES LAURINAITIS

2008 LOTT TROPHY WINNER

2008 LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS WINNER

2006 NAGURSKI AWARD WINNER

The most decorated linebacker in Ohio State history, James Laurinaitis was a three-time consensus All-American while playing on four Big Ten championship teams. Twice helping the Buckeyes to the BCS championship game (and setting a championship game record with 18 tackles vs. LSU), he won the Bronko Nagurski Award for the nation's most outstanding defensive player as a sophomore, took home the Butkus Award as America's top linebacker as a junior, and became Ohio State's first-ever winner of both the Lott Trophy and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award as a senior. He was a finalist 12 times for national awards during that three-year period.

Leading Ohio State in tackles as a sophomore, junior and senior, Laurinaitis finished his career with 375 total tackles, seventh-best in Buckeye history. Selected as the preseason and postseason Big Ten defensive player of the year for 2007 and 2008, Laurinaitis was a two-time team captain for a defensive unit that led the nation in total defense in 2007 and never ranked lower than 15th nationally throughout his career.

Despite projections of a high draft status after his junior campaign, the Hamel, Minn., native returned for his senior season, helping the Buckeyes put together their record fifth-straight win over Michigan. An academic all-Big Ten selection, Laurinaitis was tireless in community service, public speaking and outreach. He was drafted by the NFL's St. Louis Rams and graduated in March of his senior year.

DICK LEBEAU

DEFENSIVE BACK, 1956-58

A member of Ohio State's 1957 national championship team, the legendary Dick LeBeau has spent a remarkable 50 seasons in the National Football League as a player and coach, participating in 769 NFL games.

LeBeau, a native of London, Ohio, played 14 seasons with the Detroit Lions, setting an NFL record for 171 consecutive games played at cornerback. The NFL interception leader in 1970 and a three-time Pro Bowler, his 62 career picks still rank 7th best in league history.

As a coach, however, LeBeau's achievements are even more significant. The architect of the zone blitz, his innovations have brought changes to every aspect of defensive football.

Serving as an assistant coach with Philadelphia, Green Bay, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Buffalo, and was also the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 2000-02. A coach with 10 division championship teams, he has coached in five Super Bowls, winning twice, most recently as defensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

MIKE NUGENT

2004 LOU GROZA AWARD WINNER

When Ohio State senior Mike Nugent, or "Noooooge" as he was known to Buckeye fans, was selected as the winner of the 2004 Lou Groza Award as the nation's best place-kicker, no one was surprised. There was simply no one else in the same league.

Nugent was the model of consistency in 2004, converting 24 of 27 field goal attempts, including five-of-six from 50 yards or longer to lead the nation in that statistic. He also made all 30 of his extra point tries and sent 40 of his 62 kickoffs into the end zone for touchbacks.

In a 24-21 win over Marshall, the 5-10, 180-pound kicker calmly nailed a career-long 55-yarder as time ran out. The following week, in a hard-fought 22-14 win at North Carolina State, he was a perfect five-for-five in the field goal department. In his final game as a Buckeye, Nugent scored 15 points against Oklahoma State to become Ohio State's all-time leading scorer with 356 points.

During his illustrious career, Nugent literally rewrote the Ohio State record book, either setting outright or sharing in 22 school kicking records. Two of the more significant were career marks for field goals made (72 of 88) and career field goal percentage (.857). He also holds the marks for most consecutive field goals made (24), consecutive field goals made in Ohio Stadium (17) and career 50-yard field goals (8).

Nugent won All-America honors in both 2002 and 2004, becoming the first Ohio State placekicker to receive a spot on the first team. He was a consensus choice in 2004, landing a spot on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Associated Press All-American teams.

At the beginning of the 2004 season, Nugent's teammates selected him as one of the team captains, the first kicker since 1976 to be so honored. At the end of the year, his teammates chose him as the 2004 MVP.

He was a 2005 second-round draft pick of the NFL's New York Jets, where he played five seasons. He is currently with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

ORLANDO PACE

1995, 1996 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1996 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

Pace made the "Pancake Block" famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Playing one of the most challenging positions in football, Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State's John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the 1996 Maxwell Award. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State's MVP in 1996.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship team. He has been voted to seven Pro Bowls during his NFL career.

JIM PARKER

1956 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the standard by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 national championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football (1974) and the Professional Football (1973) halls of fame. His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen. Parker passed away in July, 1985, at age 71.

B.J. SANDER

2003 RAY GUY AWARD WINNER

B. J. Sander had big shoes to fill in 2003. As the Buckeyes' punter, he faced the daunting task of replacing graduated All-American Andy Groom.

But Sander's shoes seemed to fit just fine. In a storybook season, he averaged 43.3 yards per punt, was voted to a first-team all-Big Ten berth and became the first Buckeye to win the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best collegiate punter.

From a pure numbers point, Sander was magical. Of his 82 kicks, a phenomenal 39 were downed inside the opposing 20-yard line. That figure led the nation. Additionally, 16 of his punts were fair-caught, meaning just 31 of his punts were even returned.

Sander led the Big Ten and was fourth nationally in net punting. Like Groom, he was a master at giving the Buckeyes good field position and allowing the Ohio State defense to dominate a game.

Two of his best efforts came late in the year. Against Purdue in Ohio State's final home game of the season, he punted 10 times, downing seven of those inside the 20 and five inside the 10. At Michigan, where Ohio State athletes establish their legacies, he averaged 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks. Sander had five kicks of 60 or more yards, including a career best of 68 yards against San Diego State.

The Cincinnati native was a third-round draft pick of the NFL's Green Bay Packers in 2004 and played there two seasons.

TOM SKLADANY

KICKER 1973-76

OSU's most recent three-time All-American, Tom Skladany was a punter and kicker between 1973-76 and the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the first specialist ever chosen as a Buckeye captain. The six-year NFL veteran was a 1991 inductee to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

TROY SMITH

2006 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Troy Smith may not have been Ohio State's star recruit in the spring of 2002, but by the end of the 2006 football season there were few Buckeyes with a brighter aura.

A standout quarterback at Cleveland Glenville High School, the 6-0 Smith was renowned for his athletic ability and mental toughness. But his lack of size was a concern for some college recruiters.

Not so for Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel.

"The one thing I knew for sure after seeing Troy play in high school was that I wanted him on our team," Tressel said. "There was something special about the way he carried himself.

"I didn't know if he was going to play quarterback or some other position, but I knew I wanted him on our side."

A gifted runner and passer, Smith was redshirted as a freshman in 2002 and saw limited action the following year, appearing in 10 games at slash back and returning kickoffs.

The talented sophomore broke into the 2004 starting lineup in week seven and led the Buckeyes to a 4-1 record down the stretch, including a 37-21 win over Michigan in which he accounted for three touchdowns and 386 yards in total offense.

In 2005, Smith guided the Buckeyes to a 10-2 record that included a thrilling come-from-behind victory at Michigan and a decisive win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Smith threw for 16 touchdowns and rushed for 11 more in his first full season as a starter.

CHRIS SPIELMAN

1987 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time all-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-American, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused on the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players, finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns. A four-time Pro Bowl selection, he is a 2000 inductee into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame and a 2009 enshrinee into the College Football Hall of Fame.

SHAWN SPRINGS

CORNERBACK 1994-96

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Keith Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time all-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft after his junior season; he has had two Pro Bowl selections during his eight-year NFL career.

JIM STILLWAGON

1970 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1970 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-American as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points; five were held to under 10 points.

Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless: all are adjectives that were used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football (1991) and Ohio State Athletics (1979) halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

JACK TATUM

DEFENSIVE BACK 1968-70

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three seasons as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 national championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl champion Raiders. He was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1981 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

STEVE TOVAR

LINEBACKER 1989-92

Steve Tovar was another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he had the distinction of being the first of 21 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three consecutive seasons (1990-92), one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat. In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time all-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranked fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio, native was a third-round selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft. After playing eight years in the NFL, Tovar began a career in college coaching. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

MIKE VRABEL

DEFENSIVE END 1993-96

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owned every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards were also Buckeye standards. Vrabel finished as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles for loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team all-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native was a third-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1997 NFL Draft. His 11-year pro career to date includes three Super Bowl championships with the New England Patriots and a Pro Bowl selection.

DAN WILKINSON

DEFENSIVE TACKLE 1992-93

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won all-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. As a junior in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive lineman in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles for loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won all-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April, 1994. The Dayton, Ohio, native played 13 seasons in the NFL.

BILL WILLIS

LEGENDARY ALL-AMERICAN

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense.

A willowy 6-2 and 215 pounds, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. A member of the Buckeyes' 1942 national championship squad, Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming the first African-American All-American at Ohio State.

A Columbus native, he went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns after college; he was one of four African-Americans to reintegrate professional football. He was a member of five championship teams and was named all-pro eight times with the Browns.

A member of the Pro Football (1977), College Football (1971), Ohio High School Football and Ohio State University Athletics halls of fame, his jersey number "99" was retired Nov. 3, 2007. He passed away Nov. 27, 2007, in Columbus.

ANTOINE WINFIELD

1998 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, was one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998. He was the first Buckeye to win the Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time all-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass breakups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 career games, starting 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News and was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totaled 75 tackles, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior, Winfield as voted by his teammates as the 1997 MVP after a season in which he totaled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

A first-round draft pick of the Buffalo Bills in 1999, the hard-hitting Winfield has been a member of the Minnesota Vikings since 2004.

THE HISTORY OF OHIO STATE FOOTBALL

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote Ohio State – 100 Years of Football: “Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history.” Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 1999, was supplied with permission from Ohio State – 100 Years of Football.

1890

Football becomes a varsity sport and Alexander Lilley is the first head coach.

1899

The Buckeyes notch a 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season.

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

1902

Coaching hero John Eckstorm shocks the university community, announcing his resignation as head football coach. Perry Hale, a star player at Yale, takes the reins.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for “deluxe” games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-Eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing Eastern coaches, the board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

1913

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

1914

Ohio State produced its first All-American, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song “Across the Field.” The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game (Oct. 16, 1915).

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

1917

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Chic Harley earned All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

1919

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under Coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

1920

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

1921

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. More than $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

1922

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

1928

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did postgraduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

1929

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-American in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball and baseball.

Some things never change. Fans packed the stands at Ohio Field to catch a glimpse of the Buckeyes.

Ohio State defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 3-0, at Ohio Field in 1911.

1933

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Pittsburgh game (Oct. 10, 1936). OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first West Coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarnghaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

1943

With a game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenant Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.

1944

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

1946

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switched roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-American at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kick-offs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 27-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the "Greatest Feats in American Sports" by a panel of sportswriters. To no one's surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes' days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between West Coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

1955

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy becomes Ohio State's third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan's previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school's third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school's faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

In 1890, Alexander S. Lilley was named Ohio State's first head football coach.

Lynn Wilbur St. John

The first Script Ohio was performed Oct. 10, 1936 during the Pittsburgh game.

One of the most memorable games in college football history was the Ohio State-Michigan Snow Bowl of 1950.

Archie Griffin became the first two-time Heisman Trophy winner in 1975.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

1966

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter's arrival in 1985.

1968

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school's fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called "the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football," rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

1972

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal-line stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan, 14-11, and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the "Capital of College Football."

1974

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU's opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives West Coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: "He's a better young man than he is a football player, and he's the best football player I've ever seen." Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

1976

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and national coach of the year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars' memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State's hopes for a championship season.

1987

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes' memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school's 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin's OSU freshman rushing record.

1991

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. A then Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland Trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

1999

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

2000

The jersey numbers of former Heisman Trophy winners Vic Janowicz (31) and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady (40) are retired at home games against Penn State and Michigan, respectively. The Buckeyes fall to South Carolina in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, the first meeting between the two teams. Following the season, former OSU assistant Jim Tressel is named to replace John Cooper as head coach of the Buckeyes.

2001

Jim Tressel becomes the Buckeyes' 22nd head football coach. The jerseys of Les Horvath (22) and Eddie George (27), Ohio State's first and most recent Heisman Trophy winners, respectively, are retired. The Buckeyes defeat Michigan in Ann Arbor, their first win there since 1987. The three-year, $194 million stadium renovation is completed.

2002

Ohio State captures the school's seventh national championship and the Big Ten's first unanimous crown since 1968 by compiling a 14-0 record and defeating Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3. The 14 victories set an NCAA Division I-A record. The Buckeyes begin the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, but gradually work their way up to the No. 2 spot prior to their showdown with the previously unbeaten and top-ranked Hurricanes. Their 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami is typical of a heart-pounding season in which they win five games by six points or less. Quarterback Craig Krenzel and two-way star Chris Gamble, who starts at both flanker and cornerback for the Buckeyes, share team MVP honors. Additionally, Krenzel is selected as the offensive MVP of the bowl game, while teammate Mike Doss is the defensive honoree.

2003

The Buckeyes began the season by winning their first five games and extending their winning streak to 19 games – the second longest in school history. A 17-10 setback at Wisconsin ended that streak. The Buckeyes also played the first ever overtime game in Ohio Stadium, a 44-38 triple overtime victory over visiting North Carolina State. It was the longest game in OSU history, lasting 4 hours and 17 minutes from kickoff to final gun. OSU won its second consecutive BCS game with a 35-28 win over Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl.

2004

Minus 14 players who had been taken in the NFL draft the previous April and 28 seniors overall, the youthful Buckeyes won their first three games, lost the next three and then won five of the last six, including wins over Michigan in the regular-season finale and Oklahoma State in the Alamo Bowl to finish at 8-4. The senior class had the satisfaction of being just the second class in Ohio State history to post winning records against Michigan (3-1) and in bowl play (3-1). Mike Nugent became the school's first Lou Groza Award winner as the top kicker in college football and took over as the Buckeyes' all-time leading scorer. Nugent and junior A.J. Hawk both won first team All-American honors. Chic Harley, Ohio State's first three-time All-American, had his jersey retired.

2005

The Buckeyes captured a share of their 30th Big Ten title and closed the season with seven consecutive wins en route to a 10-2 record. Coach Jim Tressel's squad posted rare back-to-back wins over Michigan and Notre Dame, the latter in the Fiesta Bowl for the Buckeyes' fourth consecutive bowl victory and third BCS triumph in four years. Linebacker A. J. Hawk was a consensus All-American and won the Lombardi Award. Center Nick Mangold and safety Donte Whitner were also accorded first-team All-America honors. Quarterback Troy Smith was the MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where he accounted for 408 yards in total offense.

2006

The 2006 Buckeyes opened the season at No. 1 in the polls and remained there throughout the regular season. Jim Tressel's team compiled a perfect 12-0 regular season record and won the school's first outright Big Ten title since 1984. The Buckeyes defeated No. 2 Texas in Austin and No. 2 Michigan in Columbus, the latter a 42-39 shootout that will go down as one of the most thrilling games every played in the storied rivalry between the two Big Ten giants. After a loss to Florida in the National Championship game in Arizona, the Buckeyes wound up No. 2 in the final polls. Individually, the story of the season was senior quarterback Troy Smith, who threw for a school record 30 touchdowns, won unanimous All-America honors and became Ohio State's seventh Heisman Trophy winner. On the defensive side of the ball, tackle Quinn Pitcock and linebacker James Laurinaitis both won All-America acclaim. Laurinaitis won the Nagurski Award as the best defensive player in the country and was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award. Pitcock was a finalist for both the Lombardi and the Lott awards. Anthony Gonzalez and Stan White Jr. both won first-team Academic All-American laurels.

Picked third in the preseason Big Ten race, the young and offensively inexperienced Buckeyes went on to win another Big Ten outright title and finished the regular season with an 11-1 mark, the only loss coming to Illinois. Ohio State, which moved to No. 1 in the polls by mid-October, finished with a 14-3 win at Michigan; after a number of upsets across the nation during the next two weeks, the Buckeyes were No. 1 in the BCS standings entering the bowl season. Ohio State went to play LSU in New Orleans, dropping a 38-24 decision to finish ranked fourth. Junior James Laurinaitis, the Butkus Award winner, was a finalist for five national awards; he and offensive tackle Kirk Barton earned first team All-America honors. Brian Robiskie was a first team Academic All-American, and six Buckeyes were first team all-conference.

Laurinaitis was Big Ten defensive player of the year, junior Vernon Gholston was Big Ten defensive lineman of the year and tailback Chris "Beanie" Wells, who rushed for 1,609 yards, was voted team MVP. Coach Jim Tressel won his 200th career game with the victory at Washington. Bill Willis, the pioneering 1940s All-American, had his No. 99 jersey retired.

2008

In 2008, Ohio State posted a fifth straight win over Michigan (42-7) for the first time in the storied rivalry. The Buckeyes also won a share of their fourth straight Big Ten title and played in their fourth consecutive BCS bowl, losing 24-21 to heavily favored Texas in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. James Laurinaitis won the Lott Trophy and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, while Malcolm Jenkins was the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award; both were consensus All-Americans. Laurinaitis for the third time. Chris "Beanie" Wells, who rushed for 1,197 yards, was voted team MVP for a second year.

2009

Capturing their fifth straight Big Ten title, the 11-2 Buckeyes advanced to Pasadena for the first time in 12 years, defeating favored Oregon 26-17 behind the play of Rose Bowl MVP Terrelle Pryor. Winning the conference crown outright, Ohio State closed the regular season with wins over nationally ranked Penn State, league-leading Iowa (in overtime) and at Michigan (21-10), the sixth consecutive victory over the Wolverines, an OSU record. All-America safety Kurt Coleman was voted team MVP.

2010

Ohio State became the first team in Big Ten history to win at least 10 games in six consecutive seasons en route to a 12-1 record, a sixth consecutive Big Ten championship, a seven straight win over rival Michigan and its second straight BCS bowl victory with a 31-26 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. Ohio State finished No. 5 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls for the second straight season while center Mike Brewster and cornerback Chimdi Chekwa picked up first team All-America honors. NOTE: The 2010 football season was vacated by The Ohio State University in July, 2011.

Jan. 1, 1921, Tournament Park,

PASADENA, Calif. – California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

PASADENA, Calif. – Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassidy ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

PASADENA, Calif. – Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-all before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1-yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern, the game's MVP, hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

PASADENA, Calif. – Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and two touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

PASADENA, Calif. – Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime with three third quarter scores. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

PASADENA, Calif. – Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

PASADENA, Calif. – All-America quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner

Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, OSU held UCLA to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run and close out the scoring.

MIAMI, Fla. – After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – In the first meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Clemson Tigers won their 10th consecutive game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive.

Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of 4 yards, in the drive.

Freshman Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point was blocked, but OSU had a 9-7 lead.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and OSU's hopes were dashed.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the 1 for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

TEMPE, Ariz. – A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four-consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh-consecutive game and their second-consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State and Pitt combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Split end Thad Jemison scored the game winner, hauling in a 39-yard pass from Mike Tomczak with 39 seconds left on the clock.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. OSU's Rich Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yard field goal, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the day.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record.

ORLANDO, Fla. – Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

DALLAS, Texas – Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which OSU led 7-6.

TAMPA, Fla. – Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 but the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play.

Auburn scored on its first possession after the half as Slack and Taylor teamed up again from 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous MVP choice, ran 5 yards for the first and also flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

TAMPA, Fla. – The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Marvin Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the first Syracuse possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb to bury Ohio State.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

ORLANDO, Fla. – Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays, scoring the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs and the teams were tied at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third TD of the evening.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU territory three times in the fourth quarter with each drive ending on incompletions.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

ORLANDO, Fla. – The first meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rain-storm, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by Central McClellion. Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the break. The Vols took a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth. But Tennessee marched 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play that ended the scoring.

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the granddaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Arizona State.

The win propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls.

Reserve quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. ASU scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. The Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrios Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score, the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Ohio State capped off an 11-1 season with a convincing win over Texas A&M.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine then engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

TAMPA, Fla. – In the first meeting between South Carolina and Ohio State, the Gamecocks upset the favored Buckeyes 24-7. The win gave South Carolina Coach Lou Holtz his first victory over the Buckeyes in five tries (0-2 at Minnesota and 0-2 at Notre Dame).

Ryan Brewer, a native of Troy, Ohio, accounted for 214 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.

Both offenses struggled early and South Carolina led 3-0 at the half. The Buckeyes had a chance to tie it as time expired, but Dan Stultz' 47-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Brewer scored from 7 yards out for the Gamecocks and offensive guard Mike Gurr recovered a Jonathan Wells fumble in the end zone for the Buckeyes.

But it was all South Carolina in the fourth quarter as Brewer (the game's MVP) scored first on a nifty 28-yard screen pass and later on a 2-yard run.

TAMPA, Fla. – With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third quarter deficit.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the OSU comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. Bellisari ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. TEMPE, Ariz. - Ohio State worked two overtimes to rip the national championship from the Miami Hurricanes in one of the greatest college football games ever. Maurice Clarett ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown, and Ohio State's defense turned back one final Miami bid to tie the game. With that, the Buckeyes completed an unbeaten run to their first national title in 34 years with a 31-24 win.

Trailing 24-17 in the first OT, Ohio State converted a 4th-and-14 on a pass by Craig Krenzel. But the Buckeyes then faced a 4th-and-3 at the 5 when Krenzel threw to the right corner of the end zone for Chris Gamble. A flag was thrown from the back of the end zone indicating pass interference and three plays later Krenzel scored from the 1 to send the game to a second OT. In the second OT, the Buckeyes went first and Clarett capped the five-play drive.

The Buckeyes took a 14-7 halftime lead, turning two turnovers into touchdowns in a 78-second span, and extended the margin to 10 points on Mike Nugent's 44-yard field goal. The Hurricanes closed to 17-14 on Willis McGahee's 9-yard scoring run in the third quarter to set the stage for Todd Sievers' 40-yard kick at the end of regulation.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Craig Krenzel improved to an amazing 24-3 as a starter at Ohio State as the Buckeyes claimed a 35-28 victory over Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Krenzel overcame two first quarter interceptions to complete 11-of-24 passes for 189 yards and four touchdowns, finding both Michael Jenkins and Santonio Holmes for two scoring strikes each.

The Buckeyes stormed out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring first on special teams before Krenzel hit Holmes and Jenkins to pad the lead, which slipped to 21-7 at the half. After intermission, the Wildcats pulled within seven, but Krenzel and Jenkins teamed up to again to reclaim a two-touchdown lead. Holmes caught his second TD pass from Krenzel and dragged two feet in the back of the end zone to make the score 35-14. Kansas State added two more scores.

Jenkins finished with five receptions for 96 yards, and ended his career with 2,898 career receiving yards. Kansas State out-gained Ohio State 378-337 in total yards, but the Buckeye defense held the Wildcats to 84 yards rushing. Ohio State ran for 148 yards to go with 189 passing yards. SAN ANTONIO, Texas - Justin Zwick threw for one touchdown, Lydell Ross and Ted Ginn Jr. each ran for another and Mike Nugent kicked four field goals to lead No. 22/24 Ohio State to a 33-7 MasterCard Alamo Bowl victory over Oklahoma State in front of 65,265 fans at the Alamodome.

The Buckeyes finished 8-4 on the year as they won their 40th game under head coach Jim Tressel, who became the fifth coach in school history to reach the mark. He was the second fastest to reach 40 wins, taking 51 games. Tressel's mentor Earle Bruce reached the plateau in 50 games. Tressel is now 40-11 after four seasons in Columbus and boasts a 19-year career record of 175-68-2. He also has guided the Buckeyes to a 3-1 bowl record.

Zwick, completed 17-of-27 passes for 189 yards and one touchdown without an interception. The Buckeyes added 214 rushing yards to finish with 403 yards of total offense. It was the fifth time this season for Ohio State to surpass 400 yards in total offense.

Ross carried the ball 12 times for 99 yards and a score, while Branden Joe carried 13 times for 57 yards. Ginn added 40 yards on eight carries and scored.

Ginn, normally a flanker for the Buckeyes, made his first appearance at quarterback. His 5-yard run up the middle that gave Ohio State a 30-0 lead with 8:13 to play in the third quarter. The OSU freshman was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the game.

Ohio State did not put any more points on the board until Nugent delivered his fourth field goal of the night to lift the Buckeyes to a 33-0 cushion with 10:44 to play in the game. Nugent, the 2004 Lou Groza Award winner, connected from 37, 35, 41 and 36 yards to set the school's bowl record with four field goals, his 20th school record.

Ohio State limited Oklahoma State to 286 total yards. The Cowboys had entered the game averaging 245.0 rushing yards per game, but the Buckeyes held them to 149 yards rushing on 30 carries. Oklahoma State added 137 yards passing. Donte Whitner led the Buckeyes with eight tackles, including seven solo stops. Anthony Schlegel, A.J. Hawk and Quinn Pitcock added five tackles each. SCORING	1	2	3	4	-	F

Jan. 2, 2006, Sun Devil Stadium (76,196)

TEMPE, Ariz. – Led by Troy Smith and Ted Ginn Jr. on offense and All-America A.J. Hawk on defense, Ohio State ran roughshod over Notre Dame in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, downing the Irish 34-20 in a game that wasn't as close as the final score indicated.

The Buckeyes were making their third appearance in four years in the Fiesta Bowl, and Sun Devil Stadium seemed to fit them like an old pair of well broken in sneakers.

After Notre Dame opened the game with a crisp six-play, 72-yard drive that culminated with a 20-yard run by Darius Walker, it was pretty much all Ohio State the rest of the way.

Smith and Ginn saw to that. First they hooked up on a beautifully thrown 56-yard scoring pass on which Ginn was five yards behind his defender when the ball settled into his outstretched hands. Then Ginn gave the Buckeyes the lead for good on a dazzling 68-yard reverse in which he cut this way and that and left frustrated Notre Dame defenders strewn helplessly in his wake. Smith dialed just again just before halftime, connecting with Santonio Holmes on an 85-yard pass that gave the Buckeyes a 21-7 lead at intermission. Had it not been for two fumbles, one in the ND red zone, and a blocked field goal, the margin might have been greater.

The Buckeyes had 391 yards in total offense at halftime. Notre Dame had 154. Ohio State was a perfect five-for-five on third-down conversions.

Smith had thrown for 248 yards by intermission and both Ginn and Holmes were over the 100-yard mark in receiving yards.

Walker scored on a 10-yard run in the third quarter to cut the deficit to eight at 21-13, but a 40-yard field goal by Josh Huston made it 24-13 at the end of three quarters.

Huston converted again, this time from 26-yards out at the start of the fourth quarter, to give OSU a 27-13 lead.

Notre Dame's final score came on a three-yard run by Walker with 5:27 to play, cutting the Ohio State lead to 27-20. Their scoring drive covered 80 yards in 13 plays.

But the Buckeyes quickly responded with an 85-yard drive of their own that included two clutch third-down completions by Smith and a 60-yard TD gallop by Antonio Pittman that eliminated any and all doubts.

Smith was the MVP of the game, rolling up 408 yards in total offense and accounting for three touchdowns. The Buckeyes finished the evening with a season-high 617 yards in total offense – 342 passing and 293 on the ground. The Buckeyes had three drives of 80 or more yards and a fourth of 68.

All-America linebacker A.J. Hawk was the defensive MVP. He had a game-high 12 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and a forced fumble.

Jan. 8, 2007, Univ. of Phoenix Stadium (74,628)

GLENDAL, Ariz. – Ohio State's Ted Ginn Jr. returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown, but it was all Florida from there as the No. 2 Gators upset the No. 1 Buckeyes, 41-14, in the BCS National Championship Game Jan. 8 in Glendale, Ariz.

Big Ten champion Ohio State (12-1) had defeated the nation's second-ranked team twice earlier in the season – at Texas and vs. Michigan – but saw its four-game bowl winning streak and the nation's best 19-game winning streak overall come to an end. The 2006 Buckeyes are the only team to face a No. 2-ranked opponent three times in the same season.

Ginn was injured in the celebration of his opening kickoff return for a touchdown and the Buckeyes could not recover offensively. Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Troy Smith completed 4-of-14 passes for 35 yards and an interception and was sacked five times by the Gators (13-1).

Junior tailback Antonio Pittman rushed for 62 yards on 10 carries and his 18-yard touchdown run with 13:32 left in the second quarter brought the score to 21-14 in favor of the Gators, but it would be all the closer the Buckeyes would get.

Florida, champion of the Southeastern Conference, scored touchdowns on its first three possessions, then kicked a pair of field goals before scoring another touchdown with 23 seconds left before halftime. The Gators led 34-14 at intermission, capitalizing on the Buckeyes turning it over on downs on their own 29 yard line and a Smith fumble on his own 20 on back-to-back possessions.

OSU linebackers James Laurinaitis and Marcus Freeman both collected 15 tackles in the game.

2008 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

No. 2 LSU	38
No. 1 Ohio State	24

SCORING	1	2	3	4	-	F
LSU	3	21	7	7	-	38
Ohio State	10	0	7	7	-	24
Jan. 7, 2008, Louisiana Superdome (79,651)

New Orleans (AP) — Making its second straight appearance in the BCS championship game, and its third in six years, No. 1 Ohio State was unable to contain No. 2 LSU in a 38-24 loss at the Superdome.

Ohio State was trying to win its second BCS title in six years, and add to the one that Coach Jim Tressel captured by upsetting Miami 31-24 in double overtime for the 2002 championship.

LSU rallied from an early 10-0 deficit, taking a 24-10 halftime lead that held up.

"We just didn't do the things you need to do to win a ball-game of this nature. We're very aware that LSU's a deserving champion," Tressel said.

Ohio State (11-2) had little to celebrate after Chris "Beanie" Wells, who finished the game with 146 rushing yards, broke loose for a 65-yard TD run on the fourth play of the game.

Known as a punishing runner, Wells got the game off to a quick start; the Buckeyes' bruising back started left, made a nifty cut right and burst through the middle. On the longest run of his career, Beanie outran All-America safety Craig Steltz for a 65-yard TD.

This time, Ohio State made it 10-0 on its next possession. Todd Boeckman hit a wide-open Brandon Saine, setting up Ryan Pretorius' 25-yard field goal.

Only five minutes into the game, Ohio State and its all-brass band was blowing away the Tigers. LSU looked dazed and defensive coordinator Bo Pelini had few answers, but LSU's offense started clicking behind running back Jacob Hester.

First, he barreled into All-America linebacker James Laurinaitis for a short gain. Both players are the rugged type and in a nice show of sportsmanship, Laurinaitis -- whose dad, Joe, once starred as "Animal" in the "Legion of Doom" wrestling tag team -- helped up Hester.

Hester broke off a 20-yard run on the next play, and LSU eventually got a 32-yard field goal from Colt David that made it 10-3.

That score late in the first quarter seemed to jazz everyone in purple and gold. Two big penalties against Ohio State helped set up Matt Flynn's 13-yard touchdown pass to Richard Dickson, who somehow found himself uncovered. Flynn punctuated the strike by hollering, giving a wild fist pump and putting up both hands to signal TD.

Tied at 10, the Buckeyes counted on Wells. He delivered one of the season's best stiff-arms on a 29-yard romp, and Ohio State seemed poised to retake the lead.

Instead, Ricky Jean-Francois crashed through the middle, swung his big right arm and blocked Pretorius' 38-yard field goal try.

LSU turned to another of its five dangerous tailbacks, and NCAA sprint star Trindon Holliday zigzagged closer to the goal line. Flynn's perfect pass to Brandon LaFell in the back left corner of the end zone put the Tigers ahead 17-10.

Then, LSU's defense made the big play. Cornerback Chevis Jackson intercepted Boeckman's lost toss and streaked 34 yards down the right sideline.

The Tigers moved to a first-and-goal at 1. On third down, Hester plunged up the middle and it was 24-10 at the half.

The Tigers got two big plays on special teams -- Ricky Jean-Francois blocked a field goal, and LSU took advantage of a roughing-the-kicker penalty when Austin Spitzer missed on a punt-block attempt.

Flynn hit Early Doucet with a four-yard toss with 9:04 left for a 31-10 lead and the celebration was on in earnest. The Buckeyes made the score more respectable on Boeckman's 5-yard TD pass on fourth down to Brian Robiskie, only to have Flynn come back and throw his second TD pass to Dickson.

As the clock ticked down, Boeckman threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Brian Hartline.

"I worry about disappointment because of how hard the kids work. I don't worry about criticism," Tressel said. "If you struggle taking criticism, you better not be at Ohio State and better not be playing football."

LSU (12-2), whose two losses both came in triple overtime, became just the fourth favorite to win in 10 BCS championship games.

GLENDAL, ARIZ. — Ohio

State scored 15 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, including a Todd Boeckman-to-Terrelle Pryor touchdown pass, but it wasn't enough to shake off the pesky Texas Longhorns.

Quarterback Colt McCoy hit Quan Cosby with a 26-yard scoring pass for the winning score with 16 seconds left. The Longhorns, ranked third in the BCS ratings and both major polls, used a second-half comeback to outlast the Buckeyes. McCoy ran for one touchdown and threw for another in the third quarter.

Texas trailed 6-3 at the half after being held to minus-9 yards rushing and giving up 140 to the Buckeyes, 96 to junior running back Chris "Beanie" Wells, who missed most of the fourth quarter after he was concussed.

The Buckeyes opened up the scoring with a 51 yard field goal by Aaron Pettrey in the first quarter. Texas evened things up with a 27 yard field goal by Lawrence Hunte. Ryan Pretorius added a 30-yarder to put OSU up 6-3. Pettrey also missed a 51-yarder in the first period.

McCoy was sacked on a 4th-and-7 situation to squelch one drive in the first half and was intercepted at the goal-line by Anderson Russell in the final five seconds after the Longhorns had driven to OSU's 15-yard line.

McCoy completed 20 of 27 passes over the first two quarters and drove Texas 80 yards for the go-ahead touchdown on the opening drive of the third quarter, covering the final 14 on a quarterback draw. The Longhorns converted two fourth down plays in the drive, including Rashad Bobino's run on a fake punt on a 4th-and-2.

He found Cosby with a 7-yard touchdown pass before the quarter ended for a 17-6 lead. Ohio State scored the next 15 points and took a 21-17 lead on Dan Herron's 15-yard run with 2:05 remaining.

The Longhorns then covered 78 yards in 11 plays. Cosby broke free at the 15-yard line over the middle and had nothing between him and the end zone.

Quarterback Todd Boeckman, a senior who lost his starting spot to Pryor after two games, gave the Buckeyes a lift when they needed it. He completed 5 of 11 passes for 110 yards and a touchdown to Pryor, who lined up at wide receiver. Brian Robiskie led Buckeye receivers with five catches for 116 yards.

Pryor threw for 66 yards and ran for 78.

McCoy finished by hitting 41 of 59 passes for 414 yards and was named the offensive MVP. Cosby had 14 receptions for 171 yards.

Ohio State, which was playing the Fiesta for the fourth time since 2003, is 4-2 in the bowl and 18-22 overall, 4-4 under Tressel. Texas now leads the all-time series 2-1, with every game being played since 2005.

PASADENA, Calif. — A Rose Bowl record-setting performance by the Ohio State offense, led by the passing and running skills of quarterback Terrelle Pryor, propelled No. 8 Ohio State to a 26-17 victory over No. 7 Oregon in the 96th edition of the "Granddaddy of them all" Jan. 1 at the Rose Bowl Stadium.

Pryor, who had not thrown more than 17 passes in Ohio State's previous five games — all wins that clinched a fifth consecutive Big Ten Conference title and the school's first Rose Bowl berth since 1997 — had a personal-best day at quarterback to earn Most Valuable Player honors. The sophomore completed 23 of 37 passes for 266 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. He also led Ohio State in rushing with 72 yards for 338 yards of total offense.

Pryor, quite simply, was masterful in keeping the Ohio State offense on the field for 89 plays and a Rose Bowl record 41 minutes 37 seconds, the stat of the day when considering the high-scoring Duck offense just didn't have the opportunities or the time to come near its 37.7 points-per-game average. Consider:

Pryor led a 10-play, 74-yard drive on Ohio State's first possession that was capped by a Pryor to Brandon Saine touchdown pass covering 13 yards. Saine, who rushed for 45 yards and caught two passes for 59 more on the day, bulldozed through a Duck defender at the 2 to score the TD.

After Oregon came from 10 down to tie the score at 10 and retake momentum in the second quarter, Pryor and the OSU offense went on a 19-play drive that chewed up 8:03 on the clock. Devin Barclay's second of three field goals on the day — from 30 yards — put the Buckeyes back into the lead at 13-10.

A Ross Homan interception with just 25 seconds remaining before intermission gave Pryor just enough time to set up a 45-yard Aaron Pettrey field goal as time expired. The successful kick signaled Pettrey's return from knee surgery that caused the senior to miss the final three games of the regular season.

Pryor and the offense matched Oregon's touchdown to open the third quarter, one that gave the Ducks a 17-16 lead, with an 11-play drive that resulted in a Barclay field goal from 38 yards out, putting Ohio State back into the lead at 19-17.

After each team had a turnover and a punt, Pryor directed a 13-play, 81-yard fourth quarter touchdown drive for a 26-17 lead. Pryor hit Jake Ballard for 24 yards for a key third-down conversion, and then found DeVier Posey in the end zone from 17 yards out for the touchdown.

Posey and the receivers had big days with Pryor on target and his throws on pace. Posey finished with eight receptions for 101 yards and running mate Dane Sanzenbacher had nine for 64 yards. Saine, coming out of the backfield, had a marvelous over the shoulder catch-and-run along the sidelines for a 46-yard gain. Tight end Ballard leaped into the air to bring down Pryor's third-down throw that kept that winning drive going.

Equal credit goes, too, to Ohio State's defense, which limited the Ducks to a mere 260 offensive yards. Leader Jeremiah Masoli threw for only 81 yards and had just nine rushing yards while 1,400-yard rusher LaMichael James managed just 70 yards rushing.

Ross Homan led the Buckeyes with 12 tackles and an interception late in the first half that led to an Ohio State field goal and a 16-10 halftime lead. Thaddeus Gibson had two tackles-for-loss while Cam Heyward and Doug Worthington had one apiece.

The win completed an 11-2 season for Ohio State and it put an end to a number of streaks: it stopped a three-game BCS bowl game losing streak for Ohio State; it snapped a six-game losing skid against teams ranked in the Top 10; and it snapped a six-game Big Ten conference losing streak in the Rose Bowl.

The 2009 senior class, with its Rose Bowl victory, finished with 44 wins, most in Ohio State history.

OHIO STATE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

CRAIG KRENZEL

Craig Krenzel will long be remembered for his role as the starting quarterback on Ohio State's 2002 national championship team. But Krenzel was perhaps even more accomplished in the classroom than he was on the football field. A molecular genetics major, he was named winner of the Socrates Award as a junior, presented by Sporting News Radio to the outstanding student-athlete in the nation. As a senior, Krenzel was named to a first-team berth on the Academic All-America Team and singled out as the Academic All-American of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America. He was selected as one of 13 football seniors nationwide to receive a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship. At the NFF awards dinner in New York in December, he was again singled out, this time receiving the Vincent DePaul Draddy Award, as the top scholarship winner. Finally, he capped off a brilliant year by being named a recipient of the NCAA's prestigious Top VIII Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and community involvement.

MIKE LANESE

Mike Lanese always will occupy a special place in the hearts and minds of Ohio State fans everywhere. His clutch grab against Michigan in 1984 has become known as "The Catch" and is one of the most memorable receptions in Ohio State history. But Lanese's legacy also includes some memorable accomplishments in the classroom, where after twice being named to the Academic All-America team, he was named a Rhodes Scholar in 1985. The former OSU flanker is the last Big Ten football player to be so honored. After completing his studies at Oxford, Lanese served in the U.S. Navy.

BOBBY HOYING

Ohio State quarterback Bobby Hoying was one of the National Football Foundation's 13 scholarship recipients in 1995. Additionally, at the awards banquet in New York, Hoying was named winner of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Hoying was the first Big Ten player ever to receive the award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND HALL OF FAME SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the top seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Ohio State has produced 20 recipients. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the William V. Campbell Award to the top senior in the group. Buckeyes Bobby Hoying (1995) and Craig Krenzel (2003) are the only Big Ten players to win that award.

NOTE: The list contains full-time assistant football coaches based upon available research material.

ERNIE GODFREY

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.
